Estimates Before Commons Next Monday M.P.'s Next Week To Debate Cuts In Expenditures

Predicted Appropriations for Various Departments Will Show Substantial Reductions When Premier Bennett as Minister of Finance Presents Estimates to Commons on Monday.

Canadian Press

Ottawa, April 9.—It is understood Premier Bennett will table the estimates for the current fiscal year in the Commons next Monday. The House will resume its session that day, and the expectation is that Mr. Bennett, as Finance Minister, will present the estimates before the members again take up the debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne.

A fraction of the estimates—either one-sixth or one-twelfth—will have to be voted by the House before the next Wednesday, on which date the civil servants are scheduled to receive their bi-monthly salary checks, should the House fail to do so, there would be no credits available for the paying of the public officials.

That the estimates will disclose drastic reductions in the current year's proposed expenditures is now taken for granted. All departments will have smaller appropriations than heretofore, and such appropriations will be the limit permitted to those departments. The Prime Minister announced before the rising of the House for the Easter recess that departmental executives would have to keep within the limits of the vote, "some gentlemen would lose their positions."

CLEAN-UP NOW SPRING HERE

Junior Chamber to Wage Campaign From April 20 to April 25

April 20 to April 25 has been adopted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the annual clean-up, and plans are being made for a striking appeal to all citizens to take advantage of spring weather to preserve the capital city's bright, orderly appearance.

The appeal is expected to be particularly successful this year. The organizers point out that it will stimulate buying and bring extra business to the stores. It will create many jobs for workmen now idle, who are prepared to turn their hand to the work of painting, clearing up neglected gardens, mending broken fences, clearing out accumulations of rubbish in basements or any of the score of tasks that need to be done around most property.

The campaign has for several years proved a great success, and while some houses and gardens in Victoria may show signs of neglect and houses may suffer from frugal use of paint, on the whole, it is claimed, Victoria is among the first cities in Canada for its generally neat and tidy appearance.

B.C. TO HAVE LUMBER AGENT IN LONDON TO INCREASE SALES

JUDGE NAMED FOR INQUIRY

Chief Justice J. T. Brown of Saskatchewan to Join Stomp and Evans on Grain

Ottawa, April 9.—Chief Justice J. T. Brown of the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court of Saskatchewan is the nominee of the representatives of the prairie provinces on the federal grain commission which will investigate trading in futures. The name of Chief Justice Brown was placed before Premier R. B. Bennett for approval early this afternoon, when it was said the approval probably would be given later to-day.

The work of the inquiry was under discussion this afternoon between Premier Bennett and Sir Josiah Stamp, eminent British economist and chairman of the investigating board. The other member of the body is W. Sanford Evans, M.P., Winnipeg, representing the grain exchanges.

DOCTORS SAY KING MAKING STEADY GAIN

Queen Drives to London While His Majesty Recuperates at Windsor Castle

Sovereign Signs State Papers; Intermittent Rains Visit the District

Windsor, Eng., April 9.—Progress noted yesterday in the condition of King George, who is suffering with subacute bronchitis, was being maintained to-day, it was stated officially at Windsor Castle.

The statement was issued after his physicians, Lord Dawson of Penn, Sir William Rees and Dr. Henry Martyn, had seen him.

The King signed a number of state documents this morning in his room and transacted other official business. The weather was less favorable, with a cloudy sky and occasional rain showers instead of yesterday's sun.

The Queen left the castle during the morning for an automobile ride into London, where she visited a picture dealer's establishment and made several purchases.

TIME IS NEEDED
Assurances from the castle that His Majesty is progressing nicely have been somewhat qualified from the beginning of his illness by the insistence by those about him that his progress must necessarily be slow and that a considerable time must elapse before his normal health is restored.

Such warnings are unpleasantly reminiscent of similar admonitions given the public at the time of his serious illness in 1928 and 1929 and have tended to keep alive public anxiety in his behalf. It is known he is not too strong after the former illness and that a new bronchial attack would put his physique to a great strain.

INCREASES REST HOURS
The King did not attend the family dinner at the castle yesterday evening, although Princess Mary and her husband, the Earl of Harewood, newly arrived at the castle, were present. His Majesty went to bed comparatively early, a fact to which castle attaches gave no sinister significance regarding over-fatigue.

SYRIAN REPORTS DENIED
Paris, April 9.—The French Foreign Office to-day characterized as untrue Jerusalem reports that the French had signed an agreement with Emir Ali, son of former King Hussein of the Hijaz, whereby he was to become King of Syria.

TWO NEW TRADE PACTS URGED

Government Prepared to Provide $15,000 This Year, Loughheed Tells Manufacturers' Association

Hamilton, Bermuda, April 9.—Recommendation of the tariff committee of the Canadian Trade and Goodwill Mission to South America that reciprocal preferential trade treaties with Argentina and Brazil be forthwith considered by the Canadian Government was adopted at a meeting aboard the steamship Prince Robert Tuesday. It was announced on arrival of the vessel here to-day.

The report of the committee, headed by Senator C. P. Beaulieu, K.C., of Montreal, said it was considered the time was propitious to approach those South American countries.

One man would be appointed—perhaps two—by the government to push the propaganda of British Columbia woods and lumber and to keep the industry here in touch with purchasing interests in Britain. These officials (Concluded on Page 2)

Says Famous Art Works Are Fakes

Dr. Maximilian Toch, above, scientist and paint expert, started a warm discussion in art circles a week ago and it has not ended yet. He declared—and he sticks to his story—that at least twenty-nine of the thirty paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of New York attributed to Rembrandt were done by other artists. His decision was based on the use of the X-rays and microscopic photographs. Dr. Toch also believes only about thirty-five of approximately 800 pictures supposed to have been painted by the Dutch master (1606-1669) actually were his own work.

SOUND OF GLASS BREAKING LEADS TO MAN'S ARREST

F. J. Munro Charged With Attempted Breaking and Entering at Garage

Was Held at Point of Gun by Citizen Until Arrival of Police

Charged with attempted breaking and entering with intent to commit theft, Frank James Munro was arraigned before Magistrate George Jay in City Police Court this morning and remanded till tomorrow without plea. G. H. Sedger appeared as counsel.

The arrest of Munro was effected early this morning following quick action by L. D. Foxgord, 1289 Walnut Street, who held the man at the point of a rifle until police arrived. It is alleged he, with a companion who accompanied him to the corner of Fernwood Road, attempted to enter the Fernwood Garage at the corner of Fernwood Road. Munro made a statement to police regarding the affair; it is understood.

According to the account told by Mr. Foxgord, he was awakened about 1 o'clock this morning by the sound of breaking glass and on looking out of a window saw the outline of two men at the rear of the garage. He shouted to his wife to bring his rifle and then, covering the men, ordered them to put up their hands.

One of the pair dropped to the ground and crawled away in a small ditch. The other ran to the corner of Fernwood Road but stopped when Mr. Foxgord threatened to fire. When police arrived in answer to a summons from Mrs. Foxgord, Munro was arrested by Constable Claude Belcher.

P-T.A. DELEGATES IN CONVENTION

New Westminster, April 9.—With delegates in attendance from all districts in the province, the annual convention of the P.T.A. Parent-Teacher Association was opened this morning in Columbia Hall here. Mayor A. Wells Gray, M.P.P., delivered an address of welcome and Dr. S. J. Willis, Superintendent of Education, addressed the delegates during the afternoon.

Teachers Opposed To Giving Council Voice On Salaries

Federation Records Accord With New Grant Distribution System But Opposes Idea of Municipal Councils Having Power to Veto Salary Increases Above Scale; Say New Regulations on Number of Pupils Per Teacher Will Cripple High Schools; Accredited High School Plan Favored.

Claims that the Minister of Education had ignored major requests of teachers in connection with the new educational legislation, coupled with indirect opposition to recently-enacted measures, were voiced yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of the B.C. Teachers' Federation.

The main points in dispute have to do with the new basis for distribution of government grants to municipalities and its relation to teachers' salaries, and the limitations regarding the number of teachers that can be used in proportion to pupils.

In connection with the salary plan, the following resolution was passed: "That the British Columbia Teachers' Federation appreciates the action taken by the Minister of Education and the Provincial Government in contributing a greater portion of assistance to the cities and municipalities in connection with educational expenditure; but regrets that any portion of teachers' salaries has been classed as extraordinary expenditure, subject to the Ministry of Education, thus removing full control of salaries from the school trustees who are elected by the people for the special purpose of providing education in their respective districts."

"Furthermore, inasmuch as the whole success of the plan for fixing fair and reasonable salary schedules depends largely upon the composition and work of the committee to be formed for this purpose, the federation welcomes the definite statement of the Minister of Education that the federation will have just representation on such committee and will be consulted in connection with the composition thereof, in accordance also with the specific request of the minister." 56,000 in Norway Are Out on Strike

Oslo, Norway, April 9.—Fifty-six thousand skilled laborers were out of work in strikes and lockouts to-day as a consequence of refusal of labor unions to accept a revision downward of wage scales. The number probably will be higher by April 15, when the unions not only demand there be no decrease, but that there be an increase of from 10 to 20 cents in the scale.

CREWS CLEAR RAIL LINE OF ROCKSLIDE

C.P.R. Trains Delayed For Time By Obstruction Near Redgrave, B.C.

Vancouver, April 9.—With the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway blocked at 3:20 p.m. yesterday by a rockslide at Redgrave, B.C., fifty-eight miles west of Field, trains to-day were delayed. Work trains dispatched from Field were expected to clear the line for traffic by this evening.

High bluffs border the line at Redgrave and when a small slide was noticed yesterday afternoon trains in the neighborhood of that point were ordered stopped in the interests of safety. Canadian Pacific officials said to-day.

BYNG RETURNS TO LONDON

London, April 9.—Viscount Byng of Vimy, chief commissioner of Metropolitan Police and former Governor-General of Canada, will return to Scotland Yard Sunday after several months' sick leave.

He is still weak after his illness, according to The London Daily Herald, but will not contemplate retiring until after he has carried out a re-organization programme.

MAN HELD FOR GORDON MURDER IN NEW YORK

Accused of Killing Woman Known on Broadway; Four Detained as Witnesses

Harry Stein, Charged With Murder, Served Sentence For Former Crime

New York, April 9.—Harry Stein, who went to prison in 1921 for attempting to strangle a woman, was held here to-day for the murder last February of Vivian Gordon.

Four others were arrested as material witnesses. Police said the motive of the murder had been robbery, and not, as first suspected, to prevent her testifying as a witness at the inquiry into the magistrate's courts and bribery and other activities of the vice squad of the New York police force.

Police produced three persons who identified Stein as the man who on the day after the Gordon murder was in possession of articles similar to those stolen from Vivian Gordon—a mink coat, a wrist watch and a chain.

Records revealed Stein was convicted ten years ago and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for robbing Mary Glickman at her Bronx apartment after he had bound, gagged and attempted to strangle her.

The arrests yesterday evening were made simultaneously in various parts of the city. Besides Stein, those arrested were: Samuel Greenhouse, alias Greenberg, Greenhouse and "Grennie," forty-four years old, a tailor.

Moris (Doc) Levine, thirty-six, electrician.

David Buttermann, thirty-four, jobber.

Jack Holdcroft, twenty-nine, former Canadian trooper.

Skeleton keys and a pistol were found in Holdcroft's room.

Stein, Levine and Greenhouse are three of the men mentioned in the diary Vivian Gordon kept—the diary in which the Broadway butterfly set down (Concluded on Page 2)

HOTEL MEN COMING HERE

Washington State Hotel Men Meeting at Seattle Awards Full Day to Victoria

Some of the most prominent hotel operators of Washington State will visit Victoria on May 16 when about one hundred members of the Washington State Hotel Association, which meets in convention at Seattle on May 15, will be diverted here as a pleasurable break in the convention proceedings.

Hotel men of Victoria met yesterday evening to draft a tentative programme for the reception and entertainment of the visitors. There will be a luncheon, to which Mayor Anscomb and other prominent guests will be invited, and an impromptu golf tournament will be arranged.

The convention will open in Seattle on the morning of May 15 and at the conclusion of business that day the delegates will board the Canadian National boat, arriving in Victoria early May 16.

It is considered likely that some of the delegates will remain over here several days.

DEATH CALLS N. LONGWORTH

Speaker of United States House of Representatives Succumbs to Pneumonia

Albany, N.Y., April 9.—Nicholas Longworth, sixty-one, Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, died here at 10:52 a.m. to-day.

Longworth's amazing vitality surprised his physicians, who yesterday gave up hope, saying he probably would die during the evening.

At his bedside was his wife, the former Alice Roosevelt, daughter of President Theodore Roosevelt, and his friend, Mrs. James P. Curtis, at whose home he contracted the disease.

His daughter, Paulina, aged six, was not with him.

He was taken ill Monday and physicians diagnosed his illness as pneumonia in one lung Monday evening. He steadily grew worse and forty-eight hours later they admitted his condition was desperate.

Mrs. Longworth was notified as soon as it was determined he was suffering from pneumonia and she arrived in Albany yesterday morning. Her fortitude, Dr. R. H. Wilds of Albany, one of the attending physicians, said was remarkable.

Police Forced to Call Interpreter to Explain to Over 200 at Vancouver Police Headquarters That Three Men Accused as Result of Killing of N. POLICE MOVE DISAPPOINTS LARGE CROWD

A. M. Campbell Sentenced and Whisked From Vancouver Courthouse to Jail

No Demonstration in Street; Terminal City Assizes End With Other Sentences

Canadian Press
Vancouver, April 9.—Sentenced in the assize court here to-day by Mr. Justice Murphy to one year's imprisonment in the Oakalla Jail, Allan McEwan Campbell, thirty-year-old communist from Glasgow, was whisked out of the courthouse into a city police van at the Howe Street entrance, this manoeuvre disappointing a crowd of a thousand or more which had gathered in front of provincial police offices on Hornby Street.

Handbills, distributed in the morning, invited a demonstration to demand the release of Campbell and John Cunningham, forty-eight, who received a sentence of six months.

Campbell and Cunningham were described in the handbill as "class war prisoners."

Mr. Justice Murphy checked any contemplated demonstration in the courtroom with the stern warning that any interference would be a contempt of court, and police officers would take the violators into custody.

City and provincial police had gathered in force to break up threatened disturbances.

While a large crowd waited on Hornby Street for the departure of the prisoners in the provincial police van, the convicts, under heavy guard, were taken down a corridor to Howe Street, where they were put aboard a city police wagon.

FRENCH SEE THE GRAF ON CAIRO TRIP

German Dirigible Passes Mar- seilles on Journey to Egypt and Palestine

Marseilles, France, April 9.—The dirigible Graf Zeppelin was sighted west of here at 11:55 a.m. to-day (3:35 a.m. Victoria time).

TWENTY-FIVE PASSENGERS
Friedrichshafen, Germany, April 9.—The German dirigible Graf Zeppelin set out at dawn to-day on a Mediterranean jaunt to Egypt and Palestine with the intention of doing what was forbidden in March, 1929.

The Graf this trip has permission to land at Cairo and to-day on a Mediterranean jaunt to Egypt and Palestine when a similar trip was projected, it was understood, the British Government entered tactful objections to passing over Egypt.

There were twenty-five passengers aboard to-day, among them Flight-Lieut. R. S. Booth, who commanded the British dirigible R-100 on its flight to Canada. Dr. Eckenroth is in command.

BANKERS PROMISE FURTHER AID FOR PRAIRIE FARMERS

Ottawa, April 9.—Considerable progress is reported to have been made to-day in the matter of bank credits as affecting locally farmers of the prairie provinces.

The subject was discussed at a meeting between Premier R. B. Bennett and representatives of the Bank of Montreal, the Royal Bank, the Bank of Nova Scotia, the Bank of Commerce and Hon. M. A. MacPherson, Attorney-General of Saskatchewan, Hon. W. W. Smith, Minister without Portfolio in the Saskatchewan Government; Premier J. E. Brownlee of Alberta, and Hon. R. A.

Canadian Press
Vancouver, April 9.—The bland demeanor for which Orientals are famous proved very exasperating to Vancouver authorities this forenoon when more than 200 Japanese crowded the corridors of police headquarters in the hope of witnessing the opening of the murder charge hearing against three of their compatriots.

In vain police endeavored to explain the hearing was scheduled for to-morrow morning. White teeth flashed as the hearers snarled and nudged, but the crowd did not move. Finally officers called interpreters to explain the situation. Even then the visitors were doubtful. When court opened nearly 100 were still on hand.

The large attendance indicates the interest taken by the Japanese colony in the alleged "murder syndicate" uncovered during investigation of the death of Natsuki Watanabe, Shinichi Sakurada, whom police declare operated a private "hospital" on East Cordova Street, H. Hiltom and Bunshiro Fugino are the three who face a murder charge in connection with Watanabe's death.

ALL OVER AGAIN
After the first crowd had finally been cleared from the corridors and halls, a second drifted in and police officers were forced to go through their explanations again. When Irish, Scotch and other brogues failed to move the visitors, an interpreter was summoned a second time.

DEATHS INVESTIGATED
Details of further police investigation into the deaths of several Japanese during the last two years and also insurance matters have not been announced. Sakurada was beneficiary of an insurance policy written by the B.C. Mutual Benefit Association on the death of Watanabe. The beneficiary was described as a "nephew."

It is reported that investigation into the deaths of several children has failed to disclose any connection between the accused and the affairs of the deceased. Leading Japanese medical men are assisting in the investigation.

Records of several life insurance companies are being examined in connection with recent deaths of Japanese colony. It is expected that work will require several days and that results will not be announced immediately.

NO LICENSE HELD
The city license department had no record of the "hospital" on Cordova Street which treated a number of Japanese whose deaths are now being investigated. It is alleged Sakurada operated the place with an unqualified medical practitioner in charge. The house was listed as a private residence and city officials had no means of knowing it was used as a hospital, it is said.

EXPECTED RATE BY-LAW TO PASS THIS AFTERNOON

All indications at the City Hall this morning pointed to the final setting of the 1931 millage rate at the meeting of the council this afternoon. The tax by-law, introduced formally last week, has been amended to put the rate at forty-two mills, and it is generally conceded that it will pass the aldermanic board in this form. Final passage to the refunding loan was given at the special council session on Tuesday night. Today is cleared for passage of the tax measure.

FRENCH BANK SUIT IS HEARD IN NEW YORK

New York, April 9.—Testimony that the Bolsheviks seized $9,500,000 worth of gold ingots which the Bank of France had on deposit in a Russian bank at the time of the revolution was given yesterday by Konrad de Sahmen, former Imperial Russian official. His testimony, in deposition form, was presented at the federal court trial of the French bank's suit against the Chase National Bank and the Equitable Trust Company of New York. De Sahmen was director of the chancery of credit from December, 1916, until the revolution the following November. His deposition was introduced by the Bank of France as the first link in a chain of evidence it has promised to produce to trace its gold to the United States banks.

The French central bank seeks $5,000,000 cash from the two merged New York banks as damages for the loss of the gold. It contends that though it might not have owned the ingots actually sent here for sale to the United States government and later reshipped to Russia, it is entitled to collect an equal sum under the common law provisions to the effect such restitution should be made when goods are co-mingled.

$100,000 FIRE IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, April 9.—Damage estimated by firemen at $100,000 was caused in two lumber yards and adjoining property by a fire of unburned origin here yesterday before the blaze was controlled. The fire started in the two-story Elite Box Factory at Fifth and Brannan Streets, destroyed a three-story flat building and spread to the lumber yards of the McCallum Company and the White Brothers Lumber Company. Firemen carried a woman and child from the flat building when they were overcome by smoke.

New Power Plant Licensed For Portland Canal

Washington, April 9.—A license for a power plant of ultimate 50,000 horsepower capacity on the Columbia river, about twelve miles from Hyder, southeastern Alaska, was granted today by the power commission to the Commonwealth Mining and Exploration Company. At the same time, the commission approved transfer of the license to the Portland Canal Power Company. Power from the development is to be sold to mines and public utilities in the Salmon and Bear Rivers watershed on both sides of the international boundary.

CONCRETE ROOF COLLAPSES AND MAN LOSES LIFE

Berkeley, Cal., April 9.—One man was fatally injured and twenty-one others were hurt, seven of them seriously, when a section of the new concrete roof of the Mechanics Building, under construction, collapsed on the University of California campus here yesterday afternoon. Skeleton bracing and pillars yielded suddenly, precipitating tons of material and workmen to the ground. One man seized an iron rod and clung to it as the roof collapsed beneath his feet. After rescuers had extricated him from the mass of wet concrete. Eleven others were taken to three Berkeley hospitals where injuries were found to range from fractured skulls to internal injuries and cuts to broken bones.

Farm Mortgagees Sticking By West

Recent interviews by representatives of The Financial Post with chief officials of trust and loan companies in Canada, demonstrate that there is anything but panic in their minds with regard to conditions in western Canada and the prospects of that portion of Canada for recovery. While admitting that the state of affairs in western Canada is very serious, they agree in stating that there have been previous periods in which conditions have been equally or nearly as bad as they are today. The people of the west are confronted by hard problems as they have been up against hard problems before. Perhaps they have to economize and strike out new lines of effort while they await the readjustment of prices which economic law inevitably brings about. Practically all the institutional mortgage lenders are exercising forbearance. They are even going a little further than that and extending encouragement particularly to the large number of westerners who are known as being faithful to their obligations as conditions permit. The experienced officials of loan and trust companies, who have seen the west come up from a very small position in the commerce of the world to the present important status, have every confidence that forces are already at work which are laying the foundations for the rehabilitation of the debtors on a basis that will enable him to carry on. The companies are not alarmed by the situation as it affects themselves. Their combined experience of more than half a century has covered many periods of depression. They know that recovery will take place as it always has and that what appears to be doubtful assets today in a year or two will rank as recoverable in a great majority of cases.

U.S. VESSEL ON YANGTSE FIRED ON BY TROOPS

Naval Guards on Steamer Ichang Silence Squad on Bank

Associated Press
Ichang, China, April 9.—A battle between a handful of United States naval guards aboard the Yangtze River steamer Iping and a considerable body of troops, supposedly Chinese Nationalist soldiers, took place here today. The Chinese soldiers opened fire on the ship, but were silenced by guns on the steamer.

The Chinese poured a sharp fire into the Iping, which was disabled by striking a rock in rapids of the Yangtze, and was limping to Ichang for repairs. The engagement was severe, but short. The return fire proved too effective for the Chinese to withstand. The attack was made supposedly by Chinese Nationalist soldiers stationed above Ichang to prevent entry of Communists into this city. Having heard Chinese soldiers were searching ships approaching Ichang, the Iping's captain ordered down the ship, expecting a boarding party to approach and look for Reds. Instead, the ship's officers said, the soldiers attacked the Iping without explanation, forcing the guards to fire.

Lead Bradley, first-class seaman of the United States navy, was wounded in the leg and two Chinese aboard the ship were gravely wounded. The Iping managed to escape down the river after the gunfire from her decks had afforded an opportunity.

TRINIDAD SEES HELIUM SEARCH

Canadian Press
Port of Spain, Trinidad, B.W.I., April 9.—Does helium gas exist in Trinidad? This is a question of exceptional interest to the people of the island, and the findings of the government analysts are being watched very anxiously, because if helium is found in Trinidad it will mean a great aid for the colony in its present industrial depression. Helium will have another distinction to add to that of being the "largest oil producer in the British Empire."

Experiments have been started in a Trinidad oilfield by an investigator whose work along these lines previously inspired the hope of obtaining the gas in appreciable quantities. At the same time it is understood the Mines Department is directing a series of tests. The search for this commercial product which all aviation countries are on the lookout for had previously engaged the attention of the Trinidad Government. Certain analysis for the gas were made some time ago, but did not prove successful. The R-101 disaster has called attention to the need of finding sources of helium supply within the empire, although the United States has since relaxed its restrictions on the export of the gas. As helium is not inflammable, its use in airships removes the risk of explosion which has been a factor in some cases of emergency, although under normal conditions it may be negligible.

WILLIAM TELL STUNT PUTS BOY IN HOSPITAL

Toronto, April 9.—Enjoying the Easter holidays at a summer home near Huntsville, Ont., a group of five local youths endeavored to emulate the exploit of William Tell. As a result Faessler lay in a hospital here today in a critical condition. Using more modern weapon, a rifle, instead of bow and arrow, the boys were taking turns for a while. Several discharged the bullet, it is said, which missed its mark and found a resting place in Faessler's skull. In addition to Faessler and Knight, Keith Moore, Richmond Milliken and Richard Plaskett, were the members of the party.

BURMA REBELS ARE DEFEATED

Rangoon, Burma, April 9.—Strategy of police today turned a seeming victory of rebels to a decisive defeat in the Thawaddy district, between here and Mandalay, into rout, with eleven dead and many wounded left behind the insurgents.

The head man of the village, hearing the rebels were planning a raid on his district, handed his arms to the nearest police and an acting on police advice, allowed the raid to take place.

When the rebels withdrew the police had prepared an ambush for them and inflicted deadly punishment.

LISBON TROOPS HELD READY TO MEET REVOLT

All Soldiers Massed at Barracks Except Those Guarding Public Buildings

Lisbon, Portugal, April 9.—All troops here were confined to barracks today except details left to guard public buildings. Reports were current that a revolutionary outbreak in Lisbon itself was scheduled for today. An unusually tense atmosphere was apparent.

When government officials arrived at their offices this morning they found sentries at the portals of the buildings who demanded identification papers and would not let them in without them.

All military leaves were cancelled and it was said troops in barracks were under full equipment and ready to be thrown on the streets at a moment's notice.

ANGOLA SITUATION

The High Commissioner of Angola, Admiral Souza de Faria, has unexpectedly left Lisbon.

No word had been received from Angola for twenty-four hours. This and the censorship led to belief the Angolan garrison, known to be of shaky sentiment, had broken into rebellion.

REVOLT REPORTED GROWING

London, April 9.—A Lisbon dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph today said unofficial reports were current that the expeditionary force sent to quell the revolt at Funchal, Madeira, had joined the revolution.

The reports said the troops had wireless the government from their ships, demanding the present dictatorship be replaced by a constitutional regime.

Another Lisbon dispatch said the captain of the Vasco Da Gama, Portugal's largest warship, had refused an order to go to Funchal. He was court-martialed and imprisoned. It was understood the warship's captain acted in defiance to wishes of sailors and petty officers under him. The Vasco Da Gama lay in the harbor outside Lisbon today with no signs of activity nor preparation to leave.

BRITISH PROTECTED

British official quarters stated it was not intended the British cruiser London, which arrived at Funchal yesterday, would evacuate British residents from the island capital. An arrangement was said to have been reached between the British Consul at Funchal and the military junta to control there which the lives and property of British residents on the island were guaranteed.

Government officials denied troops sent to quell the rebellion had joined the rebels. They said the steamship Pedro Gomez, transport carrying 600 soldiers with planes, rifles, machine guns and light artillery, was expected to reach Funchal late this evening or tomorrow.

Man Digging Well Loses His Life

Portland, Ore., April 9.—Jack Kramer, twenty-five, Portland, died from suffocation yesterday evening when he was digging a well in on him. The shaft had been sunk to about twelve feet when it gave way and covered him with five feet of sand and dirt.

MANAGUANS CHEERED UP BY WILL ROGERS

Presence of Humorist Welcomed By People in Nicaragua Quake Zone

Associated Press
Managua, April 9.—Will Rogers, humorist, came to desolate Managua yesterday and his coming acted as a tonic of cheer to a stricken people.

He arrived aboard a Pan-American Airways plane from San Salvador, and was met by an excited crowd of United States marines and Nicaraguans. He was taken to the temporary quarters of the United States Legation, and there was greeted by Minister Matthews and marine officials.

News of his presence later among the ruins spread like wildfire, and he became the centre of a smiling crowd. Foreign Minister Irujo was introduced to Rogers and he replied in Spanish through an interpreter.

"I know of him from two angles—that he is a famous humorist and a writer of philosophy as pleasing as an old shoe, and that his presence on this earth has been beneficial to mankind," said the minister.

Rogers clambered over fallen masonry and picked his way among charred timbers, maintaining a running fire of inquiries.

TALKS WITH GUARDS

"How they coming?" he asked marines on traffic duty. "Gee, you fellows sure have been working. Where were you when it happened?"

"What do you need here?" he asked at another point. "Who is receiving notice? Who is on the committee? What is the best way to help these people?"

Told that canned milk, rice, corn and beans were the greatest necessities, he spun a droll story on the theme that "there's no bean ever was a bad bean," and his conquest of the people was complete.

Rogers was housed for the night in a tent next to the United States legation headquarters. He said he planned to stay here until Saturday, and possibly until next Wednesday.

He may take an airplane excursion into the interior.

GANDHI TO WEAR EUROPEAN CLOTHES WHILE IN LONDON

Amritsar, India, April 9.—Mahatma Gandhi, making his plans today for his forthcoming visit to London for the Second Indian Round-Table Conference, said he had decided to wear trousers in the British capital after all. Disregarding his first intention of appearing there attired only in a dhoti, a loincloth or dhoti, he said that if the weather should be sufficiently cool he would clothe himself in ordinary European trousers.

He indicated it was even possible he would appear at the round table sessions with his pigtail or chutia shaved off. The chutia is a long tuft of hair worn religiously by Hindus, whose popular interpretation of the mode is that it enables friends, when the wearer dies, to pull him out of hell. Gandhi wears a chutia habitually, although otherwise he is bald.

Although deciding to wear trousers in London, Gandhi declared he would not submit to a tortuous white shirt and would decline to attend any formal public banquets.

Vancouver Wheat Shipments Show Gain

Vancouver, April 9.—Grain exports from Vancouver to world markets for the season to date are $3,232,226 bushels, according to the regular weekly report of the Vancouver Merchants' Exchange. This is 18,261,352 bushels more than was exported at this time last year. Elevator stocks today were 12,384,260 bushels, and railways reported 2,066,800 bushels en route. Ships in port to load 565,200 bushels, and the balance of April space taken for grain is 2,871,133 bushels.

Ontario Bureau Will Deal With Exam Problems

Canadian Press

Toronto, April 9.—Establishment of a Bureau of Educational Research was announced yesterday at the Ontario Educational Association by Hon. Leopold MacKay, Ontario Provincial Secretary. The bureau would be initiated during the year, he said.

The bureau would not be a department for psychological tests, he said, asking the co-operation of teachers with the expert investigators who would have charge of the research work. He instanced problems in connection with examinations as a field for the bureau.

The department was studying the question of vocational guidance as well, he declared. Such schools were not intended for urban districts only, but owing to economic reasons had not been established in rural districts.

The strong moral health of the university was stressed by Sir Robert Falconer, president of the University of Toronto, in welcoming the delegates to the Ontario Educational Association here to-night. "I want to say that there is no cause for alarm as to what issues from the universities of this province."

"Teach religion in the schools, certainly, but do not attempt to give formal instruction in religion in the schools. It is impossible," said Dr. J. S. Hiffin, Commissioner for Education in Saskatchewan, addressing the association to-day. Formal instruction was impossible, he commented, because fifty or sixty divergent opinions were represented.

LOCAL LEAGUE SOCIETY STILL LEADS CANADA

Victoria Branch Numerically Strongest in Dominion, Members Told at Meeting

Real Value of League Revealed in Splendid Reading By Captain Wilfred Ord

Victoria retained the distinction of having the largest League of Nations Society branch in the whole of Canada, members of the local section were told at its annual meeting in the Shrine Auditorium yesterday evening. The enrollment showed a total of 631 members, ninety-three more than in 1930, it was stated.

During the meeting Dr. A. O. MacEwan was re-elected secretary and Lieutenant-Colonel G. M. Colman treasurer. The executive was named as follows: Sir Richard Lake, Reginald Hayward, M.P., Major H. Cuthbert Holmes, B. C. Nicholas, Very Rev. C. S. Quinlan, Dean of Columbia; Dr. W. G. Wilson, Captain Walter Brown, H. T. Ravenhill, Rev. G. C. Pringle, W. T. Bridge, A. H. Finlason, A. D. Crease, representing the Pro Patria Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L.; Mrs. K. Palmer, women's institutes; Mrs. A. Campbell, the I.O.G.E.; Mrs. L. A. Parsons, the Local Council of Women; W. Tuck, the Y.M.C.A.; G. A. Turner, the Rotary Club; A. D. King, the Kiwanis Club; J. P. Sloman, the Army and Navy Club; W. J. Pym, the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L.; S. Martin, the Kinsmen Club; and Stephen Lloyd, the British Public School Club.

The executive was empowered to appoint a president to fill the vacancy left by the retirement of Lindley Crease, K. C., from that post. Mr. Crease automatically became a member of the executive.

GIVES FINE READING

The meeting was featured by a splendid reading of Professor Gilbert Murray's article, "The Real Value of the League," which appeared in last September's issue of Harper's Magazine.

The article pointed out, according to the writer's opinion, it would be impossible for the world to retain its advancement towards peace without the league, which had proved so successful in settling international wrangles. It outlined various concrete instances in which the body had been instrumental in preventing wars and showed how it had officiated in the capacity of a world government.

One of the peculiar features of the League was its tendency to detract from the idea that force was needed in the foreground to accomplish desired results in international legislation.

Professor Murray had cited an instance of a prominent British authority, who at the conclusion of the World War had forecast ten wars he knew were going to be declared in the near future. That none had been waged was abundant proof of the efficiency of the organization, the writer maintained.

GIVEN JUSTICE

Where the people, or countries involved in pending disputes, had been given access to justice, through the world court, they had abandoned the more primitive method of gaining their ends by war.

An outstanding example of the workings of the world court was instanced in the case of the question of French control of all residents of Tunis, including people of English birth there. When France had sought to force British subjects into her military service, trouble had almost flared up, but had been smothered by the arbitration of the court.

Prior to the inception of the league, the article continued, a few individuals with power had held the means of conciliation in their own hands, and had been able to move as they wished.

The decision of the United States not to enter the league and consequent belief in certain quarters that without that land's support it would fail, had purged the league of "faint hearts" and had left in control only those far-sighted men who had faith in its future.

HALT TROUBLE EARLY

Through the continued work of the secretariat differences were overcome before they became dangerous. This was one of the valuable features of a permanent tribunal, the writer had said.

If the league had to seek forceful means of settling disputes, its objects would be defeated, since the chief aim of the body was to halt trouble before it reached a head.

The changed world outlook, with its broadening viewpoints, was also touched upon.

In his opening remarks, Lindley Crease, chairman, congratulated the gathering on the interest it showed in the welfare of so many people and countries.

Public opinion was the basis on which the league depended, he said, adding that the existence of the body was possible only through the public conscience of its value. He referred to the better international understanding promoted by round table conferences such as those held by the league and noted that from a materialistic viewpoint it could be looked upon as a great means of saving life and of raising the general standard of conditions the world over.

SOCIETY GROWING

Lieutenant-Colonel Colman, submitting the treasurer's report, advised the gathering of the growth of the local organization and stated the offices of the Victoria branch, at 1006 Government Street, were open from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the evening, excepting between the hours of 1 and 2, for members and those interested in its work to secure information and pay membership fees.

U.S. TALKIES ARE LOSING GROUND NOW IN MEXICO

Challenge From British and Germans; National Move- ment Grows

Special to The Times

Mexico City, April 9.—United States made movies are crowding the national cinema and the debility of national currency for honors these days in the attention of the Mexican public and press. Hollywood-produced silent pictures and talkies in English and Spanish predominate in Mexico's film entertainment field, and have done so for many years. Of late, however, this virtual monopoly has been challenged by other producers, principally British and German, and by the activities of certain nationalistic groups. College students have taken it on themselves to induce the picture theatre-going public to prefer any kind of film but those from the United States. Near riots have occurred in leading Mexico City movie houses, because pictures exhibited were either spoken entirely in English or had but an occasional title in Spanish. Police were obliged to take a hand in a demonstration in the Teatro Palacio, third largest first-run picture theatre here, because the audience took vigorous exception to a silent film that had but sixty Spanish captions.

POLICE SCHOOL WILL NOW MEET EVERY TUESDAY

Sessions of the newly-formed police school here will be held every Tuesday instead of every other Tuesday, as first planned, Chief Thomas Heatley announced following the first class this week. The interest manifested by sixteen young officers from the city force, three from Spanish and one from Oak Bay has resulted in this decision. Plans are being made to give the class an address on finger printing by T. Harvey Bamford, finger-print expert at headquarters, the chief said. The Inspector T. W. S. Parsons of the Provincial Police, City Prosecutor C. L. Harrison and other barristers and police officials will instruct the officers from time to time.

EDUCATION ON MODERN LINES

Toronto, April 9.—"There is no more superiority in the study of the classics than in the study of motor mechanics," remarked Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Provincial Secretary of Ontario, when discussing vocational schools before the Ontario Educational Association in convention yesterday. Realization of this would go a long way in education in this province, said Mr. Macaulay. Professor F. Clarke of McGill University, in speaking later, took occasion to disagree good-humoredly with Mr. Macaulay's view. "It seems to me a broken-down car is a trivial thing compared with a broken down moral system," said the professor.

can audiences. Spanish-language talkies, not up to par in execution, have been greeted with whistles (the most insulting form of scorn expression in this country) and derisive laughter.

The failure of Hollywood Spanish pictures was made the theme of an editorial published by Excelesior, one of the important Mexico City daily newspapers, in connection with its co-operation with a Mexican enterprise known as Empire Productions, which has started to build a studio here for making silent and talkies in Spanish to challenge the supremacy of Hollywood in Latin America. President Pascual Ortiz Rubio is honorary president of the motion picture company.

"From the commercial viewpoint, the Spanish-American market is very important, and heretofore it was Hollywood which rather well monopolized it," remarked the editorial. "The famous studios of Los Angeles were able to make use of whatever was necessary to make pictures that could withstand the criticism of all the different publics, and before the advent of spoken pictures their success admitted competition from none from Europe, and much less from Latin America. Their talkies, however, experienced the inconvenience of the very bad pronunciation of the Saxon artists, and the inadaptability of the Latin players to work under the direction of the American 'managers.' This, then, is an opportune time for endeavoring to make here what has been made in California, but using Latin elements in a Latin environment.

"There are other reasons of even greater importance. The screen is undoubtedly the most efficacious means of influencing the masses. . . . It is time to take a new view of the situation, and see to it that plots of pictures are spoken in Spanish and interpreted by national artists. . . . This undertaking for Latin American photoplays affords an opportunity for many young people who possess artistic abilities that are especially adaptable to the screen, who could not go to the American studios and wait in an expensive place for a chance to get odd jobs as 'extras.' . . . The production of pictures in Spanish, whose benefits, both artistic and monetary, stay among us, is a thing of much importance for our country. It must be aided with all our power, for it is the opportunity of taking advantage of the only flaw in the hermetically perfect American productions afford—the failure of their pictures in Spanish."

Had Eczema on Limb For Twenty Years. Healed by Cuticura.

"Eczema broke out in a rash on my limb, below the knee. It was in a spot about as large as a half dollar and itched badly. When I scratched it water came from it and the eczema spread until nearly the whole side of my limb, below the knee, was covered. Later it became dry and scaled over, and the irritation kept me awake nights. I had it more or less for twenty years.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they helped me and before long I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. M. A. Palmer, Auburn, Nova Scotia.

MANY GUESTS AT WEDDING OF LOCAL COUPLE

Miss Olga Hare, A.T.C.M., Becomes Bride of Fred W. Bartholomew

Pretty Ceremony Held at First Baptist Church Yesterday Evening

One of the prettiest weddings of the Easter season drew a large congregation to the First Baptist Church yesterday evening when the pastor, Rev. G. A. Reynolds, united in marriage Olga Hare, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold H. Hare, Monterey Avenue, Oak Bay, and Mr. Frederick William Bartholomew, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew, Oliphant Street. Easter lilies and palms were used in lavish profusion in the decoration of the church, the ceremony being performed beneath an archway of spring blossoms and greenery, the decorations representing the artistic handwork of Mrs. E. H. M. Foot, Mrs. Fred McGregor and Mrs. W. G. Crawford, friends of the bride.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the pretty bride made a charming picture in her bridal gown of ivory satin. The long-sleeved bodice was lightly shirred at the high waistline, from which the skirt fell in long, full folds to the floor. A girdle of Chantilly lace was marked at the waistline by a diamond buckle and flared to the bottom of the skirt, the hem of which lengthened at the back to form a train. A hand-made lace veil was arranged cap-fashion on the head, caught beneath the chin with a strap of lace, and fastened at the back with a cluster of lilies of the valley. Tiny sprays of the same flowers were arranged here and there on the veil, which formed a filmy train. Her only ornament was a diamond and platinum brooch, the gift of the bridegroom, and a sheaf of Madonna lilies completed her exquisite toilette.

Miss Lucile Hall was the only attendant, gowned in palest green chiffon, with long bodice, and full gowns of lace and shirring lending an unusual note to the wedding. The bride wore a Le Monnier model hat of transparent blue aquamarine in the Watteau style trimmed with French flowers in pastel shades, and carried a bouquet of Laidie carnations and pink roses.

The groom was supported by Mr. John Crann and the ushers were Messrs. Ernest Evans and Thomas Sturges. Mr. Oliver Stout, the organist of the First Baptist Church, played the wedding march on the arrival and departure of the bride party. During the signing of the register, Miss Marie North sang "Beloved, It Is Morn."

MANY AT RECEPTION Following the service, a largely attended reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Monterey Avenue, where the young couple were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. Hare, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Bartholomew, mother of the groom, and Mrs. Ernest Evans, the bridegroom's sister. Mrs. Hare was smartly gowned in French pink patterned in grey, marie and yellow, the smart little cotee of the same material being edged with grey foxaline. Her hat was of Bakur straw in grey, trimmed with grey lace and hyacinth velvet ribbon. Mrs. Bartholomew was handsomely gowned in flower blue lace and nixon, with Watteau hat of flower blue moire, with a cluster of carnations and pink roses.

The reception rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and blossoms, while in the dining-room pink roses were used, and the table was centred with a beautiful three-tier wedding cake and surrounded with tall pink tapers in low silver sconces. Assisting in serving were the Misses Betty Savannah, Mae Lambert, Jean MacLachlan, Victoria Gardiner and Gwen Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew left for a honeymoon in California, the bride traveling in a Deje model of grenadier blue wool crepe, over which she wore a smart Del-Monte Hickey coat of blue, with squirrel fur, and her hat was of grenadier blue trimmed with white. On their return they will take up their residence at their new home at 1860 Beach Drive.

The bridegroom is the manager of the well-known retail furniture store on Port Street, while the bride is popular in local musical circles, having obtained her A.T.C.M. degree in piano at Toronto Conservatory of Music, and has been teaching pianoforte for the last four years here.

St. Joseph's W.A. — The Ladies' Auxiliary to St. Joseph's Hospital will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon in the sewing room at the hospital.

Growing Deaf With Head Noises? Try This

If you are growing hard of hearing, and fear catarrhal deafness, or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears, go to your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

First Wedding ON SOLARIUM STAFF IS HELD

Miss Helen N. Taylor of Physiotherapy Dept. Bride of Lawrence A. Mallison

Little Inmates Assisted in Reception After Ceremony Tuesday

A wedding of unusual interest was celebrated on Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, in the Anglican church at Cobble Hill, when Miss Helen Taylor of the physiotherapy department of Queen Alexandra Solarium, was united in marriage to Mr. Lawrence Albert Mallison of Cobble Hill. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. M. Willis, chaplain of Shawinigan Lake School, in the presence of a large congregation of friends. The church was artistically decorated with daffodils and ferns. Mrs. J. Hughes and Miss Davidson being responsible for the charming setting.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Dr. Cyril E. Wace, medical superintendent of the Solarium, was attired in a white spun silk frock, with which she wore a smart white coat and fur and a becoming hat of white felt, and carried a lovely bouquet of white carnations and blue delphiniums.

She was attended by Miss Dorothy Gilles, R.N., ward superintendent at the Solarium, wearing a pretty frock of blue and white chiffon and blue straw hat and carrying a bouquet of pink tulips and carnations. Mr. Hugh Barrett of Shawinigan Lake supported the groom.

The bridal march and the wedding march were played by Mrs. C. E. Wace, and the hymn, "O Perfect Love," was sung by the congregation.

RECEPTION AT SOLARIUM Following the ceremony a delightful reception was held at the Solarium, where Miss Stone, lady superintendent, and Dr. Wace welcomed the bride party and the wedding guests. As this is the first wedding celebration in connection with the Solarium, an air of general festivity and excitement prevailed.

From the Solarium flagstaff floated the greetings: "Congratulations and best wishes," hung out by the little patients in international code flags. At the entrance to the Solarium a small guard of honor, composed of the "up-members" of the Solarium, girl guides, boy scouts and cub scouts, stood at attention as the bride party entered and passed through the gaily-decorated ward, where daffodils were prettily placed, between the coats, and flags were draped about the walls.

The reception was held in the new wing and all the children's wheel chairs and cots were brought to places of vantage about the doors of the ward so that they might have their proper share in the festivities, a special ice cream cone of generous proportions being part of their participation. The Solarium Girl Guides, assisted in serving the refreshments.

As the bride party passed through the ward on leaving the Solarium, they were showered with confetti by the little patients, and the guard of honor gave them a similar hearty send-off from the doorway.

The bride's going-away costume was a blue tailored dress, with which she wore a beige coat and small-fitting hat. After a motor tour of the neighborhood, Mr. and Mrs. Mallison will make their home at Mill Bay.

Among the invited guests at the wedding and the reception were: Dr. Wace, Mrs. C. E. Wace and Mr. Wace, the staff of the Solarium, Miss R. Stone, lady superintendent; Miss Carey-Gibson, Miss Dorothy Gilles, Miss Dorothy Lloyd, Miss Otha Scott, Miss Marie Stillington, Miss Eileen Money, Miss Minnie Briggs, Miss Iris Thomas, Miss Sheila McD. Parr, Miss Sybil Little, Miss Ewing, Mrs. Mrs. W. H. Harris, Miss Janet Henderson, Miss Molly Heron, Mr. Morris and Mr. Meredith. Guests other than the regular staff included Rev. Mr. Willis, Major and Mrs. Kerwin, Mr. and Mrs. Hemmick, the Misses Mallison, Mr. and Mrs. McEwan, Mrs. J. Hughes, Mrs. Alexander, Miss Hilda Parker, Mrs. Appleford, Miss Joan Appleton, Miss Mary Ebbes-Canavan and Miss Jean Robinson.

F.O.E. Concert Success.—The Ladies' Auxiliary, F.O.E. No. 12, held a very successful concert on Tuesday evening. The concert opened with community singing, after which the following artists contributed numbers: Mrs. Bertus, Mrs. D. D. Gosse, Master McVie, Mrs. Playne, Messrs. Reg. Stofor and Taylor, and Miss Irene Holmes and other pupils of Miss Choung's Dancing Academy. Refreshments were served by the social committee.

Esquimalt Catholic League.—The annual meeting of the Catholic Women's League of Esquimalt was held on Tuesday afternoon when the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. M. Fagan; vice-presidents, Mrs. R. Duncan, Mrs. C. Deasy and Mrs. J. McDonald; secretary, Miss Monica Burt; treasurer, Mrs. J. Demers. The secretary and treasurer read reports showing satisfactory progress in all branches of the work. Rev. Father Wood tendered a warm vote of thanks to the retiring officers for their untiring work during the past year.

L'Alliance Met.—The fortnightly meeting of L'Alliance Francaise was held yesterday afternoon at 1085 Moss Street, when Mrs. H. M. Archibald held the chair. Plans for the annual bridge asin aid of the bursary fund to be held at the home of Mrs. J. K. Cornwell on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock were discussed. Mrs. C. H. Rutherford, Empire 3367, will reserve tables. A debate on the cash and carry system was the order of business, and was carried on with much spirit, and resulted in the older order being upheld by a small majority. Many amusing arguments were advanced in favor of each. At the next meeting of L'Alliance to be held on Wednesday, April 22, some fine pictures of France and Corsica will be shown in studies by Mrs. Archibald. Madame Sanderson-Mongin will give the explanations, and a full attendance of members is expected for the final meeting of the season.

LADY CONAN DOYLE RESENTS NEW YORK STORY

London, April 9.—Lady Conan Doyle to-day said she had never heard of Nino Pecarro, who yesterday told New York newspapermen he had conducted an interview for the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

Lady Conan Doyle expressed resentment the name of Sir Arthur had been mentioned in connection with Pecarro's alleged revelations.

DEBUTANTES TO HUNT LIONS

Hon. Diana Fellowes to Join Safari on East African Trip

Canadian Press.
London, April 9.—Two debutantes are leaving London in April to hunt lions and elephants in East African jungles. The Hon. Diana Fellowes, only daughter of the late Lord de Ramsey, and Miss Marjorie Leigh, daughter of Sir John Leigh, M.P., two sportswomen hardly out of their teens have accepted an invitation to go on safari in Tanganyika Territory with Baron and Baroness Blixen, two noted big game hunters. They hope to shoot lions and elephants.

Baron Blixen owns a large tract of country in Tanganyika Territory, where he has a coffee plantation about 4,000 feet up in the highlands, some forty miles inland from Dar-es-Salaam. Lions, elephants and other big game are plentiful in the district. The Baron and Baroness are arranging for the big-bore elephant guns and other hunting equipment. Both girls are expert with a gun. Miss Leigh plays polo, and the two are excellent cross-country riders.

EAGLES CONDUCT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Younger members of Victoria Aerie No. 12, Fraternal Order of Eagles, were urged to take over the reins of government of the society by J. W. Hughes, first president of the local series, at the thirtieth birthday celebration of the organization here yesterday evening.

About 200 members were present and enjoyed the programme given in the Aerie Hall, Government Street. Among them were many who joined the series when it was still in its infancy.

Veteran membership badges were presented to Frank Rhodi, Sam Doncaster and S. T. Edwards, three men who have been with the Eagles over twenty-one years.

A message of welcome from C. H. Lester, president, opened the function. He complimented the organization for the splendid representation and thanked the committee in charge for its co-operation in staging the event.

Frank Dowd, Seattle, and H. Thornley, secretary of Vancouver Aerie No. 2078, wrote expressing their regret at being unable to attend the gathering.

Following the dinner, the gavel was handed over to Fred Cawsey, chairman of the entertainment committee, who took charge of the proceedings. An excellent programme of entertainment was greatly appreciated by the members.

The following artists contributed: H. L. Gray, Frank Elliott, Ronnie Smith, Tom Obee, "Buster" Brown, Arthur Jackson, George Durham and A. Hughes. LeRoy, past state president, and Harry Maynard spoke briefly.

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

TWO-YEAR-OLD IS APT TO SEEM "CONTRARY"

Thumb-sucking has monopolized this department recently. I must repeat that the most successful method of handling this behavior difficulty is, in most cases, the unobtrusive one; making it an issue of supremacy between parent and child simply aggravates any difficulty. In dealing with thumb-sucking it is far better to remove the child's hand as often as necessary without comment or visible display of emotion, and to substitute some more stimulating amusement since it changes the child's whole environment instead of just depriving him of his thumb.

HELP OLDER CHILD

Co-operate with the older child, letting him suggest what he thinks would be helpful reminders to him. For an older child "A Friend" suggested the use of a finger-stall made of doeklin. This was changed often enough to keep it spotless and in ten days the child had dropped the habit. Another mother sent me a sample finger-stall made of muslin. Both are simply washable covers for the thumb, fastened about the wrist by means of a cord, and serve as reminders, not as nourishments or preventives.

Mrs. B.W.S. asks the question about curing thumb-sucking, and a heap of others. Her child is twenty months old and, so she says, "contrary." She wants a method of toilet training which the child will take seriously. The child refuses to use the stool at all, or else uses it as a plaything, dragging it about the room. If she is watched while eating she won't eat; if she is unnoticed, she eats well but expects

Women Need To Be Students Not Merely Readers

Toronto, April 9.—"Please—please—study and think." With these words, Miss M. E. T. Addison, dean of women of Victoria College, closed her address yesterday when she was the guest of honor at a presentation to her on the occasion of her resignation.

"I never there was a time when women needed to be students, not merely readers, said the nationally-known educationist. It was the present. With symptoms of a reaction against women's progress setting in, she said, it was vital for women to watch well that they live up to their highest standards, lest all that had been fought for be lost.

MANY FAMILIES WERE AIDED BY CHRISTMAS FUND

Audited Accounts Show 909 Children Given Clothing and Shoes

Winter clothing and shoes were provided 909 children in 304 families, from the Mayor's Christmas fund, according to the final report issued yesterday afternoon. The statement was audited by James Boston, Holden and Company, chartered accountants.

The committee in charge of the fund consisted of Mayor H. Anscomb, chairman; P. Landsberg, treasurer; J. W. Spencer and James H. Fletcher. They were assisted by W. R. Moulton, R. E. Cook and E. J. Wilkinson, as representatives of the unemployed.

Assistance in investigating cases and in distribution of the fund was given by the committee by school nurses, officials of the Friendly Help Association, Social Service League, Salvation Army and the Armistice Period Committee. In addition to acknowledging the assistance of these groups and of many voluntary workers, the committee's report thanks the public for the generous response to the appeal for contributions.

The report shows that $125 was distributed among Sanich unemployed, and explains that the amount was earmarked for that purpose by the donors.

J.B.A.A. To Hold Dance In Honor Of Rugby Team

The James Bay Athletic Association will hold one of its popular dances Saturday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, when members of the rugby team will be the guests of the evening. The committee is in charge of T. D. Roberts and a good time is promised. The club's orchestra will be in attendance and a large crowd is expected. These dances have proved increasingly popular throughout the season and efforts are being made by the club to continue them during the summer.

Humorous Play To Be Given To-night By Young People

"The Young Country Schoolm'am," a four-act play by Clara Rothwell Anderson, Ottawa, will be given by the young people of Metropolitan United Church in their schoolroom to-night and to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. It is a humorous play in which the new "schoolm'am" captures the minister from the would-be village belle, Pa Snecleby, of the farm where the teacher boards, and his daughter, Maria Jane, are for the minister, while Ma Snecleby is set on leaving the minister to the village belle and having her son, Ike, marry the schoolm'am. This causes awkward yet exceedingly humorous scenes.

The cast follows: The schoolm'am, Mildred Williams; Ma Snecleby, Norah Hudson; Pa Snecleby, Fred Robins; Maria Jane, Ivy Butler; Ike, Len Arnall; Gideon Longfellow (school trustee), Rose Sewell; Mr. Hardy (the minister), Norman Walker; Beersheba Buck (would-be village belle), Margery Ennos; Mary Brown, Pearl Matthews; James Hughson, Jim Thorpe; Mrs. Crisp, Genevieve Knapp; Tommy Crisp, Lloyd Matthews; Maybell Primrose, Ruby Martin; Birdie Walker, Mary Goodwin.

The play is being directed by D. M. Melver and Jean Lorimer. Preceding it each night there will be a short musical programme, with the following members of the Victoria Junior Symphony taking part: String quartet, Peggy Brindle, first violin; Connie Linn, second violin; Eileen Wilson, viola; Agnes Dennstedt, cello; Violin duet, Eileen Wilson and Reita Smith; Bassoon solo, Melvin Dennstedt; Vocal solos, George Derrick and Ivan Green; Piano solos, Florrie Smethurst and Genevieve Knapp.

Cedar Hill Dances.—The Cedar Hill P.T.A. dances are becoming very popular and have been well attended. Another dance will be held Friday of this week in St. Luke's Hall.

Heavyweight Boxing Division
May Soon Boast Pair of Champions

Two Claimants May Be Latest Move to Revive Interest

Rival Champions Have Kept Interest Among Wrestling Fans

"Strangler" Lewis Prepares for Another "Shot" at World Title

IT BEGINS to look like the heavy weight boxing division will soon be in the same situation as the heavy weight wrestling class—it will have two champions. Under presents plans, Young Stribling, Georgia's hope for world heavyweight honors, and Max Schmeling, German holder of the title, will meet in Cleveland this summer in a championship bout. Now we hear of a bout to be staged at Brooklyn between Jack Sharkey, Boston gub, and Primo Carnera, the Italian man mountain, under the promotion of Jimmy Johnson, for the world's title. It is rumored that the winner of the Sharkey-Carnera fight will be recognized as the champion by the New York Boxing Commission. The winner of the Stribling-Schmeling mix will be recognized as champion by the National Boxing Commission. Total results—a pair of champions.

Having two champions laying claim to a title with both being recognized by different groups, the same as Don George and Jim London in the heavyweight wrestling division, is not so bad at that. It keeps the fans interested and L&K about matching the two "champions" is always good bally-hoo. But we notice they never meet. Such a match would eliminate one of the champions and would result in the killing of a lot of good publicity. Maybe if two title claimants were injected into the heavyweight boxing division it might tend to revive considerable amount of the lost interest. It would at least have the good effect of giving Mr. Pham something to chat about on the street corners, and give sports writers plenty of copy for their columns. The boxing game is "dead" right now as far as the heavyweight class is concerned and maybe this is a move to try and put the game back where it was when Jack Dempsey was in his prime—$1,000,000 gains in other words.

Down in Los Angeles "Strangler" Lewis, the daddy of the ring, is preparing for his title match with Don George, one of the two claimants of the world heavyweight championship. Lewis is working out in Los Angeles and is picking them in 3,000 strong as he goes through his paces to reach the pink of condition by April 15, when he takes George in an open-air bout at Wrigley Field.

It is just eighteen years ago that Billy Sandow discovered Lewis at the University of Kentucky. The young collegian was just "flirting" with the wrestling game at that time. Sandow, ever keen and far seeing, thought he saw great possibilities in the college youngster. "That fellow can be made the greatest grappler in the world," was Sandow's comment. A number of the wise ones disagreed stating Lewis lacked the size for heavyweight championship material. Local fans who have seen Lewis wrestle here and there think that statement almost ridiculous.

At the time Lewis was discovered by Sandow he weighed 190 pounds. In those days a grappler who dropped below the 225-pound mark was counted underweight. The spectacular fast-moving work that characterized today's wrestling hadn't arrived. It used to be a survival of the fittest. The big fellows would get down on the mat and tug and pull by the hour. Weight was an all-important factor.

Lewis was a bit too light but had a great frame and Sandow started him on a physical culture course. It might be well to mention that Sandow is a fanatic on this type of work. Lewis immediately started to develop until he reached his present build with a back big enough to be substituted for a rear end of a horse.

Sandow, greatest of wrestling managers, reached his peak in 1913. He is to the mat game what Jack Kearns is to boxing. Always quiet, suave and content to stay in the background, he is nevertheless the real power behind Lewis' long reign as a wrestling star. The story of Lewis and Sandow as a team is well known. For eighteen years they have remained at the top, always a successful combination. And what a pair for Don George to hurdle next Monday night when he steps into the ring at Los Angeles.

Did you know that it would have meant $10,000 to Jockey Frank Collett if Sun Beau had won the Agua Caliente. You might say that Jockey Spec O'Donnell, who rode a winning race on Mike Hall, reached right into Frankie's pocket and helped himself to ten grand. After the race, said Mrs. Collett: "Frankie did his best. You couldn't ask for more. I'm sorry we lost but there is no one I would rather see win than Spec O'Donnell." Nice little speech. Five days before the race, Sun Beau picked up a stone; it may have meant no difference in his running. However, you will have to admit that Mike Hall, in setting a new track record, didn't cheat anybody in winning.

Match Elevens For Big Fixtures Here; Plan Junior Tours

British Columbia to Meet Saskatchewan; Manitoba Plays Alberta in First Day's Play; Two Junior Teams, One Principally From University School and Another From Victoria and Vancouver, to Tour Interior and Alberta During Season; Several Other Fine Matches Scheduled.

The draw for the inter-provincial cricket tournament to be played in Victoria at the beginning of August, and the decision of the British Columbia Cricket Association to sponsor two interior tours by junior teams were announced by George Wilkinson, secretary of the B.C.C.A. this morning. These events will be two features of an exceptionally big cricket season, it was revealed. In addition to them arrangements have been made for inter-city matches between Victoria and Vancouver here on July 1, and in the Terminal City on Labor Day; a British Columbia cricket week at Vancouver, a Duran cricket week at Duncan, a North Shore cricket week at Vancouver, a British Columbia team tour of the Interior and a British Columbia team tour of the Island.

TOILERS AND RAYMOND IN FLOOR FIGHT

Western Basketball Semifinalists Dispute Scene of Their Two-game Series

Raymond Threatens to Withdraw When Games Switched to Lethbridge Floor

Winnipeg, April 9.—Western Canada's basketball semi-final is to be played at Lethbridge, Alberta, Friday and Saturday—after a violent pre-series battle by telegraph and telephone between the semi-finalists, Winnipeg Toilers and Raymond Union Jacks. The series had originally been slated to be played on the cramped floor at Raymond.

Yesterday, Toilers, who had defeated Regina Capitals, Saskatchewan champs, found their rail-transportation cancelled as they planned to move westward with the Manitoba-Saskatchewan-Thunder Bay title in their possession. The Raymond team, riled at the Toilers' statement they would play at Lethbridge "if they considered the rail tickets satisfactory" cancelled the rail tickets.

But late yesterday evening, Canadian Amateur Basketball Association officials stepped into the fray at Vancouver and advised the warring factions: "Settle your differences and play at Lethbridge. The games shall be played at Lethbridge Friday and Saturday. Since teams cannot agree, President Gillespie shall consider as defaulting whichever team does not take floor.

"No further protest shall be considered," C.A.B.A. considers Lethbridge floor O.K. It is expected that Toilers will leave late today for Lethbridge, to battle for the right to meet University of British Columbia in the western final at Vancouver, Raymond, after winning the Alberta title, had threatened to default if the series was not played on the Jacks' home floor, but it is now believed they will play at Lethbridge, twenty-six miles from Raymond.

Lieut.-Col. Street New President Of Rifle Association

Ottawa, April 9.—At the annual meeting here yesterday of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association, Lieut.-Col. D. R. Street of Ottawa was elected president. He succeeds Brigadier-General J. Duff Stuart of Vancouver. Proposals for the prize lists at the rifle matches to be held at Connaught Ranges next August were approved.

Roller Hockey Champs

who captured the championship of the Intermediate League on Tuesday evening by scoring a 6 to 1 victory over the Monarchs in the fourth and deciding game for the city roller hockey title. Those in the above picture are: Back row, left to right: G. Jones, H. Sage, W. Hakey, E. Munroe, J. Murray, T. Musgrave and B. Sage; front row, A. Murray, W. Scott, J. Baker, G. Jones and S. Baker.

DRAW

The draw for the inter-provincial matches follow:
Monday, Aug. 3.—Manitoba vs. Alberta; Saskatchewan vs. British Columbia.
Tuesday, Aug. 4.—Manitoba vs. British Columbia; Alberta vs. Saskatchewan.
Wednesday, Aug. 5.—Alberta vs. British Columbia; Saskatchewan vs. Manitoba.
Thursday, Aug. 6.—British Columbia vs. Saskatchewan (this match will be played at Duncan); Manitoba vs. Alberta.
Friday, Aug. 7.—British Columbia vs. Manitoba; Saskatchewan vs. Alberta.
Saturday, Aug. 8.—Manitoba vs. Saskatchewan; British Columbia vs. Alberta.

These fixtures, which will be played at the University School grounds, with the exception of one scheduled for Duncan, will give Victorians an opportunity to see the cream of western Canadian cricketers in action. Great crowds are expected to watch the matches, which should prove the most outstanding seen in the city for many years.

JUNIOR TOURS

In an effort to foster the game among younger players, arrangements have been made to send a schoolboys' team, principally from the University School, on a tour of the Interior and Alberta, starting July 1, under the guidance of Reg. Wannan, one of the pre-most outstanding players in the province.

The team is scheduled to play in Vancouver, Kamloops, Vernon, Kelowna, Revelstoke, Edmonton and Calgary. Players of outstanding note from other Island schools may be included in the eleven.

On August 11 a team selected from the best juniors of Victoria and Vancouver will open another tour, playing exhibitions against seniors in the same tour. Wannan, one of the pre-most outstanding players in the province, will be in charge of the second tour. Both men are of exceptional ability in the cricket field; they will doubtless add greatly to the efficiency of the juniors with their coaching and management.

TO DEVELOP GAME
In addition to furnishing younger players with an incentive to develop into higher calibre cricketers and raise the standard of the game in junior circles in Victoria and Vancouver, the tours should be of exceptional value in increasing interest in the sport in the Interior.

Preceding these trips, junior players will be afforded an opportunity to show their merit in an intercity match at the University School grounds on May 23.

Arrangements have been going ahead steadily for the season and everything points to a banner year in cricket circles.

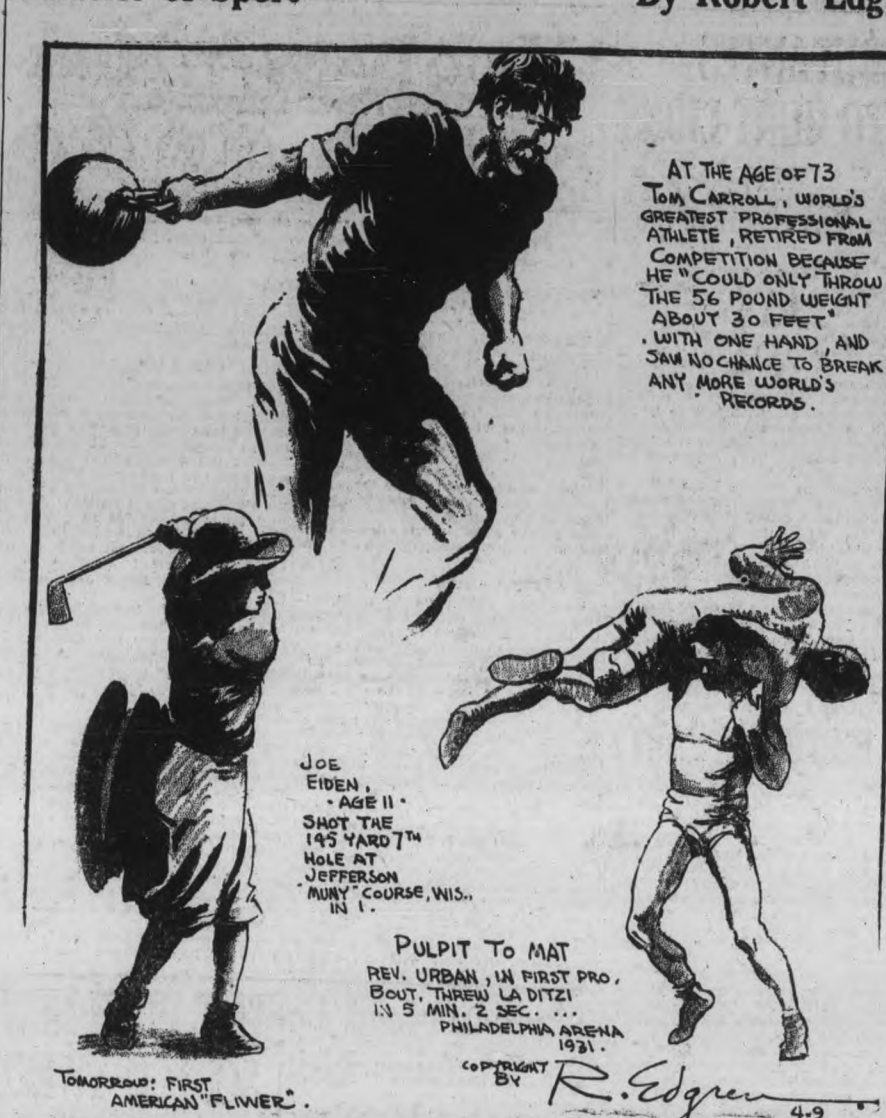

Helene Madison Breaks Just One More Swim Mark

Chicago, April 9.—Heigh ho! Helene Madison, seventeen-year-old Seattle, Wash., swimmer, has lowered another record.
Resuming her campaign to gather up all women's records, the Seattle star yesterday evening trimmed one and three-tenths seconds from the seventy-five-yard free style mark of 45.1, established in 1925 by Ethel Lackie. The accomplishment gave her possession of fourteen out of sixteen records.

Tommy Loughran Accepts Terms To Meet Sharkey

Philadelphia, April 9.—Fried and Pickles, Philadelphia promoters, announced today that Tommy Loughran, former world light heavyweight champion, had accepted their terms to meet Jack Sharkey in a ten-round bout at the municipal stadium here on June 23.

Negotiations with Sharkey have not been completed, but will proceed in Boston to-day.

Loughran was knocked out by Sharkey in three rounds at New York, September 26, 1929.

Speedy Al Is Winner

Takes Feature Race on Tanforan Programme; Jockey Cleverly Badly Injured

Tanforan, Cal., April 9.—Speedy Al, owned by Daisy Parsons of San Diego, Cal., won the feature race at Tanforan yesterday over a mile-and-seventy-yard stretch. Jeu de Bar, owned by E. L. Staples, was second, and Longus, the favorite, third. The winner's time was 1:43 2-5.

Speedy Al was a forward factor all the way, catching Longus at the head of the stretch and lasting to win, nosing out Jeu de Bar by half a length. Five-dollar odds on Speedy Al were redeemed at $17 and $4, secondary odds at $8.
Four-dollar secondary odds on Jeu de Bar were redeemed at $44.
Jockey William was seriously injured when Princess Lulu, his mount, stumbled and fell in the first race. About 6,500 spectators saw Cleverly thrown. The horse leaped the rail and raced to the stables. Cleverly was taken to a hospital at San Mateo. Complete results follow:
First race—Four and one-half furlongs: Witton $16, $6; Sir Satin $4; Padrone. Time: 54.
Second race—Spreckels course: Princess Ceuta $50, $4; Shannon Rose $10; Fair Heather. Time: 1:11.
Third race—Spreckels course: Northampton $6, $5; Pat $6; Perry Britte. Time: 1:10.
Fourth race—One mile and seventy yards: Now Mama $6, $4; Shasta Cloud $10; That's All. Time: 1:45 2-5.
Fifth race—One mile and seventy yards: Speedy Al $6, $4; Judebar $10; Longus. Time: 1:43 2-5.
Sixth race—One mile and one-sixteenth: Plunging Sun $22, $6; Forebeck $3; Mighty Cuts. Time: 1:46 2-5.
Seventh race—One mile and one-sixteenth: Red Mountain $5, $3.70; Billy $10; Amilar. Time: 1:46 2-5.
Eighth race—One mile and seventy yards: Malover $11.20, $4.50; Dr. Fred $3.50; Perrieon. Time: 1:45.

Western Football Unions May Merge

Seek to Join Western Canada, Western Collegiate and British Columbia Bodies

Conference Will Be Held on Prairies This Month; Would Be Aid in Play-downs

Winnipeg, Man., April 9.—The west's scattered rugby forces may be brought together before this month is out. Three unions, which either hold direct affiliations or want to with the Canadian Rugby Football Union—and have no working agreement among themselves—may join hands at a conference either at Regina or Calgary about April 18.

Definite date and venue for a meeting that officials hope will result in a form of merger between the western Canada Rugby Union, western intercollegiate Union and British Columbia Union, was known in a few days. Arnold Dowd, secretary of the western Canada Union, said to-day, John Degruy, former president of the Canadian Union, and Bobby Hewitson, its present secretary, have been invited to attend.

UNDER ONE BODY
Senior rugby play-downs for the Canadian title would be facilitated if an agreement of the three separated organizations is reached, according to Dowd. All play-downs would come under jurisdiction of the one central body, a condition desired by the Canadian Union.

British Columbia's champions played off last fall with the western Canada Union titleists, but the B.C. body at that time was affiliated directly with the Dominion Union. Intercollegiate winners have not taken part in Canadian play-downs for several years.

The match, played on Easter Monday between President and Captains teams, resulted in a tie.

The B.C. Union Cup now being played for by the lady members is approaching the final stages. Mrs. Rhodes beat Mrs. R. Murray, 1 up. Mrs. Peterson beat Mrs. M. M. White, 6 and 4. Mrs. Harper won by default. Miss K. Robertson beat Mrs. Frank Price, 3 and 1. In the semifinals, Mrs. Rhodes plays Mrs. Peterson, and Mrs. Harper plays Miss Kate Robertson.

The preliminary round has been played in the men's Bunkoff Cup matches, with the following results to date: B. Hope beat J. S. Robinson, 6 and 3; K. F. Duncan beat J. Longbourne, 4 and 2; Stancomb beat H. R. Punnett, 3 and 1; A. Craig and A. Leeming all square; P. Chambers beat R. Murray, 6 and 5; H. Savage beat Carlson, 2 up; Sprigg beat Stepany, 3 and 2; Hope beat E. C. Brown, 5 and 4; Phil Jaynes beat W. R. Cornwell, 1 up; G. Prevost beat J. Drywell, 4 and 2; Dr. Tarleton beat Helene here will be further discussed to-night, when the V.A.S.C. holds its annual meeting and banquet at the Crystal Pool at 8 o'clock.

COWICHAN GOLF CLUB ACTIVITIES

Duncan, April 9.—The following members were elected at the monthly meeting of the Cowichan Golf Club, held on Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rhodes, R. Marshall, R. Malingay, A. G. Tidball and Margaret Savage (junior). The match, played on Easter Monday between President and Captains teams, resulted in a tie.

The Bunkoff Cup now being played for by the lady members is approaching the final stages. Mrs. Rhodes beat Mrs. R. Murray, 1 up. Mrs. Peterson beat Mrs. M. M. White, 6 and 4. Mrs. Harper won by default. Miss K. Robertson beat Mrs. Frank Price, 3 and 1. In the semifinals, Mrs. Rhodes plays Mrs. Peterson, and Mrs. Harper plays Miss Kate Robertson.

The preliminary round has been played in the men's Bunkoff Cup matches, with the following results to date: B. Hope beat J. S. Robinson, 6 and 3; K. F. Duncan beat J. Longbourne, 4 and 2; Stancomb beat H. R. Punnett, 3 and 1; A. Craig and A. Leeming all square; P. Chambers beat R. Murray, 6 and 5; H. Savage beat Carlson, 2 up; Sprigg beat Stepany, 3 and 2; Hope beat E. C. Brown, 5 and 4; Phil Jaynes beat W. R. Cornwell, 1 up; G. Prevost beat J. Drywell, 4 and 2; Dr. Tarleton beat Helene here will be further discussed to-night, when the V.A.S.C. holds its annual meeting and banquet at the Crystal Pool at 8 o'clock.

The teams were as follows:
Hudson's Bay—Shrimpton; Tupman, Davis, Oakman, Wright, Cull, Small, Davis, Newell, Fish and Woodley.
Navy—Barker, Whyte, Dovey, Sadler, McDonald, Roberts, Hillard, R. Cockerill, Gleave, J. Cockerill and Cozier.

NAVY DRAW WITH BAYS TO WIN CUP

Sailors Capture Penderay Cup After Playing 1-1 Tie With Hudson's Bay

Cockerill and Newell Scorers; Navy Succeed Bays as Cup-holders

Holding the Hudson's Bay eleven to a 1-1 draw at the Royal Athlete Park yesterday afternoon the Navy won the Penderay Cup. The sailors have finished the series with a total of sixteen points and although the Bays have one more scheduled match they have no chance of catching the tars. The Hudson's Bay were winners of the trophy last year. Owing to the lateness of the season the Bays will not play their remaining game against the Garrison.

The teams put on a fair exhibition yesterday before a good turnout. The Bays had plenty of chances to win in the first half but their forwards showed poor shooting ability.

With the wind at their backs the Bays pressed from the kick-off. Whyte and Dovey, the Navy fullbacks, turned in a fine exhibition at this stage and it was only their work that kept the Bays from scoring. Barker, in the Navy, was through but kicked the ball over the bar. Newell, Fish and Wright all had openings but failed. The Navy were seldom dangerous in the first half and at the interval neither team had scored.

Ten minutes after the start of the second half the Navy scored the opening goal, when Cockerill worked his way through the Bays' back division to beat Shrimpton from a few feet out. Soon after the same player was through again but shot wild.

The Hudson's Bay rallied and managed to tie the score, Newell converting Woodley's cross from right wing. The Bays goal, when Cockerill worked his way through the Bays' back division to beat Shrimpton from a few feet out. Soon after the same player was through again but shot wild.

Keeling's Goal In Last Minute Gives Rangers Close Win

Lester Patrick's New York Club Ekes Out 4 to 3 Victory Over Vancouver Lions in Opening Clash of Five-game Exhibition Series; Coast League Champions Dominate Play in Early Stages to Obtain Two-goal Lead; Keeling Scores Three Goals; Game Featured by Sparkling Hockey; Only Three Penalties.

Vancouver, April 9.—Scoring three goals in the last seven minutes of play, New York Rangers downed Vancouver Lions 4 to 3 here yesterday evening in a hockey game packed from start to finish with sparkling, scintillating play. It was the first of a five-game exhibition series between the teams.

Lions, playing in top form and eager to show the eastern visitors how hockey is played on the coast, carried the battle to the New York net most of the way and John Ross Roach, Ranger goalie, had a busy time in the nets.

Rangers opened the scoring in the first period six minutes after the start when Joe Jerwa went through the Vancouver defence and laid a pass in front of the Lions' net, Keeling batting it in. Bettinger tied the score up when he stick-handled his way through the Rangers and beat Roach with a waist high shot.

Going into the third the Lions continued to bore in on the New York net and midway through the period Osmundson put Vancouver two up when he beat Roach on a solo effort. Rangers then came to life and two minutes later Keeling scored on a pass from Murdoch. Joe Jerwa repeated for New York five minutes later to tie the score again. With one minute to go Keeling got his third center of the game when he took a pass from Thompson to score the deciding goal of the game.

SUMMARY
First period—1, Rangers, Johnson (J. Jerwa), 6:03; 2, Vancouver, Bettinger, 5:20. Penalties, Murdoch.
Second period—3, Vancouver, Osmundson (F. Jerwa), 15:41. Penalties, Johnson.
Third period—4, Vancouver, Osmundson, 10:07; 5, Rangers, Keeling (Murdoch), 1:40; 6, Rangers, J. Jerwa, 5:33; 7, Rangers, Keeling (Thompson), 12:27. Penalties, Arnott.
Line-ups follow:
Vancouver—Jackson; Arnott, Redpath, F. Jerwa, Sanderson, Osmundson, Suba, Elvick, Carr, Dunn.
New York—Roach; F. Jerwa, Johnson, Bill Cook, Bun Cook, Boucher, Suba; Thompson, Murdoch, Keeling.
Referee—Mackay.

ARTHUR AND VANDLER TO BATTLE HERE

Crack Middleweight Grapplers Are Matched Over Eight-round Route

Lots of Action Looked For; Tom Ray and Young Terry in Semi-windup

Middleweight wrestlers will hold the spotlight on this week's wrestling card to be offered at the Tillamook gymnasium on Saturday evening. In the eight ten-minute-round main event, Ernie Arthur, holder of the Canadian middleweight championship, has been matched with Sammy Vandler of Portland. The five-round semi-windup will bring together Tom Ray and Young Terry, another pair of middleweights.

The Vandler-Arthur bout is expected to be a thriller. Vandler is well-known to local fans through his matches here with Des Anderson. He is one of the roughest grapplers that has appeared here, but is clever and fast, and should prove a good match for Arthur. The latter has done exceptionally well in local appearances, beating Des Anderson and gaining a draw with Robin Reeb.

Portland, Ore., April 9.—Bonnie Muir, Australian heavyweight wrestler, defeated Chief McGuire, New Orleans, in two straight falls here yesterday evening.

Muir won the first fall in twenty-six minutes with an airplane spin, and the second in two minutes with a series of headlocks.

McGuire weighed 210 pounds, Muir 205.

Robin Reed, 148, won one fall and the decision from Sammy Vandler, 146, in a preliminary bout. Both are from Portland.

Buhl, Idaho, April 9.—Iran Dern, Salt Lake City heavyweight wrestler, defeated Joe Marshall, San Francisco, two out of three falls in their main event wrestling match here yesterday evening.

St. Louis, April 9.—Jim London, claimant of the world heavyweight wrestling championship, threw Pat O'Shooker, Salt Lake City Irishman, here yesterday evening in an hour and six minutes with an airplane whirl and slam. London weighed 200, O'Shooker 225.

New York, April 9.—"Dynamite" Gus Sonnenberg, former claimant to the world heavyweight wrestling championship, threw Jack Gansson of Lithuania, in the feature wrestling match at the 69th Regiment Armory yesterday evening. Sonnenberg used a flying tackle and body slam to down his opponent in 26:05 of a finish match. The winner weighed 206 pounds, Gansson 214.

"Doe Jones is completely disgrusted. To-day he said to the Pro, 'Did you ever in your life see a worse player than me?' The Pro thought a minute and said, 'Well, Doe, there may be worse players than you—but they don't play.'"

HEADACHES, dizziness, coated tongue, loss of appetite, lack of energy, a general feeling of "blues"—these are the most frequent danger signals of constipation.

Look out for them. Don't let them make your life miserable. Start tomorrow eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—a delicious ready-to-eat cereal. A pleasant as it is healthful. What a relief it will be after taking unnatural, habit-forming pills and drugs.

Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily are guaranteed to prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, eat it three times daily.

Milk or cream brings out the delightful nut-like taste of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. And with milk or cream, important vitamins are furnished. ALL-BRAN is equally tempting with fruits or honey. Sprinkle it over other cereals.

Use it in cooking—for making delicious bran muffins, breads, in omelets, etc. ALL-BRAN also has iron, the builder of good, rich, red blood. At all grocers in the famous red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario. The original ALL-BRAN.

Mrs. Wisdom of Calgary is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Miller of Saanichton.

IRA DILWORTH AGAIN HEAD OF B.C. TEACHERS

High School Principal Elected President of Federation Second Time

Organization Has Best Year of Career With Membership Now at 2,500

Ira Dilworth, principal of Victoria High School, was re-elected president of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation at the annual meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Empress Hotel.

The federation departed from its usual practice in electing a president for a second term, but feeling that matters concerning the profession were at a critical stage at the present time, it was felt Mr. Dilworth should remain in office to carry on negotiations which he has handled successfully so far. He was installed in office by acclamation with a vote of sincere confidence.

MEMBERSHIP LARGE
The federation this year is having the most successful of its history, reports presented at the meeting showed. Membership now totals 2,491, which is more than 200 higher than any previous record. In its annual report, Mr. Dilworth said the size of the membership and the fine attendance at the meeting showed teachers were now beginning to realize the value of the organization and it augured well for the profession.

Harry Charlesworth, general secretary, also made reference to the matter, declaring the federation could claim to be representative of the profession all over the province. There were more than 650 registrations at the convention.

SALARY QUESTION
Reviewing the year's work, Mr. Charlesworth discussed the question of salaries, declaring that a stable salary was one of the compensations of a teacher's life and that business men, stock market players and others who forgot all about the poor teacher in good times, were always ready to attack him in hard times. In the present depression, he said, school boards had been generally fair to the teachers and no salaries had been given a straight cut although in some cases teachers had been asked to forego their regular increases. The trustees had not been stampeded into interfering with salaries.

Mr. Charlesworth dealt also with the work done by the federation executive in connection with new educational legislation, emphasizing the need for the organization having an equal representation on the committee which will decide the salary level on the new basis for distribution of the government grant.

Reports of the membership and finance committees showed the federation to be in very good shape. A change in the constitution of the federation to provide for the granting of associate memberships to retired teachers was made.

IRA DILWORTH

DANCE CONCLUDES CONVENTION HERE

Teachers Gather For Social Evening as Twelfth Annual Meeting Ends

Bringing to a close three days of sessions and social activities, the delegates to the B.C. Teachers' Federation twelfth annual convention yesterday evening attended in large numbers a supper dance, bridge and social evening at the Empress Hotel.

Presentation of prizes won in sports events during the convention was one of the features of the evening, Mrs. S. F. Tolmie officiating in this connection. Awards for bowling, swimming and badminton were made.

An eight-piece orchestra provided the music for dancing which lasted until 1 o'clock. Supper was served in the main dining-room following the presentation of prizes.

Patrons of the affair who attended were: Mrs. Tolmie, Hon. J. Hinchliffe and Mr. Hinchliffe, Mayor, Mrs. Anson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McLaurin, George Dean, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Paterson and Mrs. Crawford of Peace River.

The dance was arranged by a special committee of the Victoria and District High School Teachers' Association headed by Miss E. MacFarlane, president, and including the Misses Margaret Wall, N. Eaton, N. Scanlan and R. Heywood.

FRA DIAVOLO TO BE GIVEN EARLY IN MAY

Victoria Operatic Society Will Present Tunesful Light Opera on May 1 and 2

Auber's tunesful light opera "Fra Diavolo," the second offering of the recently-formed Victoria Operatic Society will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre on the evenings of May 1 and 2, the committee announced this morning. Practices for the new opera are being held almost daily and there is every indication at present that "Fra Diavolo" will be equally as successful and pleasing to Victoria audiences as was "Boccaccio," which was the initial presentation of the society.

Auber's masterpiece is full of lovely music, some of the choruses being equal almost to grand opera. The members of the chorus have been busy with their part for some weeks and under the direction of Madame de Turcotte, who is now in the city, are shaping up. A special feature of the chorus are the songs of the soldiers which include a rousing drinking song and a reel.

The principals have been carefully chosen and will appear in solos, duets, trios and ensembles of six, the music of which is magnificent. Goodwyn Goodman, who was so popular in "Boccaccio" will have the role of Zerlina in the new opera. Lady Allcash, a rich English woman, traveling in Italy, will be played by Dorothy Parsons, while Charles Ozard will be her husband, Fraser Lister. The title role of "Fra Diavolo," Arthur Partridge will play Lorenzo and Frank Partridge will be Matteo, the innkeeper. The scene of the opera is laid in Italy and, as is usual with such scenes, the picturesque scenery is celebrating some feast day with song and dance. There are three acts and the story concerns the bandit "Fra Diavolo," who is disguised as the Marquis San Marco. He fairly terrorizes the surrounding countryside with his bold deeds but after much pursuing on the part of the soldiers, is finally captured. The plot is most interesting and the music will be some of the loveliest ever heard in Victoria.

WRONG GUESSES IN HISTORY

"The Canadian Pacific is never likely to pay a red cent of interest on the money that may be sunk into it."

This is contained in an article reprinted by the Ontario Equitable Life Company and attributed to an issue of Truth in 1881. Truth was then the leading financial paper of England. The article states that it is impossible to believe that New Yorkers would put money in the C.P.R. "I would as soon credit them with a willingness to subscribe hard cash in support of a scheme for the utilization of icebergs."

Excerpts from the article state "Canada is one of the most overrated colonies." "The country as a whole is poor and crushed with debt." "This 'democracy' is, in short, a 'fraud' all through and is destined to burst like any other fraud." It is interesting to compare the "depressed" conditions of 1881 with conditions in 1931—and to "gaze into the future" fifty years. "O Ye of Little Faith," quotes the Ontario Equitable on cover of the booklet.

Seven in Ten Past 40 Need This Special Treatment

Writer Explains Wondrous Value of Doctor Southworth's "Uratabs"
And Invite All to Try Them
Without Cost Unless Pleased

With middle age ailments attacking over 70-thirds of those past forty, every one who notices such distressing symptoms as Lameness, Pain in back and down through groins, scanty but frequent and burning urination, "Getting Up-Nights," Nervous Irritability and Lack of Force—should at once try the amazing value of Dr. Southworth's URATABS.

While new to many, the truly remarkable value of URATABS has been thoroughly proven by more than 100,000 Southworth's Uratabs in the private practice of Dr. H.
C. Southworth. Reports from Doctors and users alike offer convincing proofs. "I have never found anything to help my case until I tried URATABS." "URATABS" are the best thing for Bladder Weakness and Irritation. I have ever used. "No more backaches, no more pain, no more daily embarassment of Getting-up-nights. I now sleep soundly and get up in the morning full of pep—thanks to URATABS."—This is amazing evidence!

No matter how long you have been troubled or how stubborn your case may seem to be, a ten-day test of Dr. Southworth's URATABS offers comfort and relief—and you can take the test without risk of cost, for any good druggist will supply you on guarantee of money back if not satisfied. Try URATABS today. (Adv.)

AMONG THE GREEKS

Let us pretend, for a moment, that we are making a new system of writing numbers—by using initial letters of the words: Five, Ten, Hundred, Thousand and Million.
In that case, we should set down
"F" instead of "5,"
"T" instead of
"10," "H" instead of "100," and so on.
That is how ancient Greeks made one of their number systems. Their word for "10" was Deka, so they set down "D" as the number "10."
The word "D" looked like a triangle.

UNCLE RAY
from the Greek word for "one,"
the modern word "myriad" has two meanings, "a great number" and "10,000." It rose from a Greek word meaning "10,000" and ancient Greeks often wrote this number with the letter "M."

Greeks of that period wrote "100" by making an "H," and "1,000" by making an "X." To write "one," they made a single straight line and to write
"four," they made four straight lines.
Later Greeks invented a new system of writing numbers, about the year 800 B.C. The numbers "1" to "9" were made with the first nine letters of their alphabet. The next nine letters were used for the round numbers "10" to "90." The remaining letters stood for "100," "200" and so on.
The first letter of the Greek alphabet was Alpha, the initial "A" was used for "1." The second letter was Beta, and "B" stood for "2." Our word
"alphabet" came from the first two

$\Gamma = 5$ $\Delta = 10$

$\Gamma = 50$ $H = 100$

$X = 1,000$ $M = 10,000$

$\Gamma = 50,000$

How ancient Greek wrote certain numbers.

Letters in the Greek system of letters.
Some letters in our alphabet are different from those used in Greece.
We may use our own letters to show how large numbers would be written if we used the Greek system. The number "134" would be written "SKD," while "423" would be "VKE."
That system was not so simple as the one we use to-day; but it was better than the earlier Greek system.

John M. McGuckie Dies at Nanaimo

Special to The Times

Nanaimo, April 9.—The death occurred on Tuesday evening of John Martin McGuckie, who had resided in Nanaimo for twenty years, and was a native of Scotland.

He was a prominent athlete, being an Old Country junior international and played for Nanaimo several seasons. He is survived by his wife, one son, Ian, and one daughter, Margaret, both at home, and seven brothers. He was a popular member of the community, being connected with several of city activities. He served as an alderman for eight terms, being chairman of the finance committee. Funeral arrangements are pending.

POOR FELLOW

The Smiths were on the balcony and overheard a young fellow about to propose to the light of his eyes.
"I don't think you ought to listen," said Mrs. Smith. "Whistle to him and perhaps he'll postpone the proposal until we leave."
"Why should I?" asked Smith. "Nobody whistled to warn me."

Baby Should Sleep Outdoors When Two Weeks Of Age If Born In Summer Months

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

Almost all mothers now know that baby ought to have fresh air, but few mothers have any definite idea of just what constitutes fresh air and how much the baby ought to be in a fresh air atmosphere.

Actually a baby ought to be in fresh air all the time, with the understanding that fresh air means air that is not stagnant, that is changed by proper ventilation, and of a temperature suitable to the condition of the baby's body.

Outdoor air is fresher for these reasons than indoor air.

Dr. Frederick P. Tisdall suggests that the baby ought to be put outdoors to sleep as early as possible, and if born in the summer months; if born in the winter months, it should be outside at six weeks of age. Since it is confident under modern conditions, the best substitute is to put him, dressed as if he were going outdoors, in his carriage in front of an open window.

SCRIPPS SEES TWO WAYS TO RECALL PROSPERITY

RUSSIA

or immorality, showing a healthier form of democratic government than we have observed in this country; that the official morality of the Kremlin is for clean love, loyalty to one's life partner, abstention from liquor and even eight days. Comparisons are considered odious, one cannot help thinking though.

As to the industrial and economic situation, does it not appear that the 100 Finnish and Russian foresters who are paying their own way to Russia to take up work offered there, and even incidentally repatriate themselves, have something more than rumors to guide them in their choice? It cannot be denied that at least they look forward with hope and renewed faith in humanity in their new adventure.

The efforts put forth by the proletariat of Russia for better economic conditions are the outcome of long years of almost indescribable suffering and distress, the revolution could not have been successful had it not been that it was the logical outcome of the tyrannical rule of the Czar and his cohorts. In this respect the conditions in this country and other Anglo-Saxon nations are not parallel with Russia, yet it is not a revolution, yet it cannot be denied that the break-down of industrial activities and the helplessness of our governing bodies are rapidly bringing about a state of affairs in hopelessness which may evolve similar lines of thought and which to a freedom-loving race will inevitably lead to the same end, the same state of things, the same desperate measures.
Half-truths and specious propaganda can serve no useful purpose; rather may it precipitate matters and so bring about a state of affairs in which the danger to the peace and security so necessary to the welfare of the state.

GOD'S COUNTRY

To the Editor:—We sometimes hear
Canada spoken of as God's Country.
If that is so, we wonder what God must think when He looks down and sees the thousands of unemployed, if God is such a wonderful and kind-hearted person as we are taught to believe, surely He never intended for the poor to be starved. For that is what we do today. We have unemployed married men working six days a month for the sum of $24; single men, $1 a day. No man can support a wife and family on $24 a month. It simply means that they are half starved. We all realize that the city, in giving the married men six dollars a month, is not making the relief money last as long as possible; but why not take the relief money and give all the unemployed work? Then the government for another grant, and keep going until the government wakes up to the fact that something has to be done to provide a proper living for the unemployed.

The City Council fail to do this, I would suggest that the City Council take their wives and families and try to live on $24 a month. When they find out how impossible it is, perhaps then they would have a little more sympathy for the unemployed. The single men working for $1 a day have no chance to look for anything else. Why not give them a square deal? Give them two hours a day for their $1.
Then they would have time to look for other work. Knowing that times are very bad, we do not ask for riches, but we ask for fair treatment and enough work to enable us to have proper living.

UNEMPLOYED SINGLE MAN.

OVER-PRODUCTION PROBLEM
To the Editor:—I shall be obliged if you would find space for the enclosed Time and Tide:

DAWNING
"There was a time when all efforts were concentrated upon stimulating production. The mere suggestion that it might be necessary to curb the over-production of Nature, in order to save the fecundity of Nature, in order to save an insatiable world economy from grave injury, would, in those days, have been regarded as sacrilege. Now that outlook is reversed. All over the world strenuous efforts are being made to deal with enormous over-production of silver has cut the value of that metal to a point where eastern markets are in danger of collapse. Iron, coal, nitrates, wheat, maize, sugar, coffee, tea, cocoa, oil, copper, lead, zinc, asbestos, wool, cotton, are in all heavy over-supply. Readjustment is going to be a long and severe process, and in some cases only inter-governmental support for restriction and control schemes—such as we have seen in tin and may yet see in rubber—can prevent disasters which may have their eventual sequel in under-supply. Civilization man is learning a lesson now from which he ought to profit. He must realize that over-production is a danger to the world's economic future. He must pursue increasing production and quicken and cheapening communication and transport, have brought in the era of over-production.
This revolution has made the world an economic unit over-night. We have already discovered that the new problems defy solution unless dealt with by world agreements. But obviously that is a transitory stage. With world control of the larger interests of mankind, the problem of adjusting production to world requirements should be relative simple."

MYSTERY THRILLER COMING ON MONDAY TO CAPITOL SCREEN

Fifty enormous bats, those strange flapping creatures of the night, were recently taken to Universal City for use in a number of scenes of "Dracula," the amazing drama which comes to the Capitol Theatre on Monday for a six-day engagement, with a cast which includes the famous Bela Lugosi,
the original Dracula of the stage play.

The bats were captured in a great cave in Nevada by three residents of Las Vegas, who made an expedition into the nearby hill region when an emissary of Universal arrived in town with the strangest order ever delivered into the desert country.

It is interesting to note that for two months Universal City qualified as the only place in the world where a large number of giant bats were being maintained in captivity.

In addition to Lugosi, the cast of "Dracula" includes Helen Chandler,
David Manners, Edward Van Sloan, Dwight Frye, Frances Dade and Herbert Bonston. Tod Browning directed this sensational new mystery play.

American Smelters Had Poor Year

Adversely affected by the drastic decline in the prices of copper, lead, zinc and silver, the American Smelting and Refining Company's net income in 1930 proved to be the smallest since 1923.

The thirty-second annual report of the concern which is recognized as the world's leading smelter and refiner of metals shows 1930 net income of $11-087,500, against $21,881,500 in 1929, the record year. On a per share basis, the 1930 net income was the equivalent of $3.77 a common share, against dividend requirements of $4 and comparing with $10.02 a share earned in 1929.

AT THE THEATRES

FAMOUS PLAYWRIGHT WROTE FEATURE NOW AT CAPITOL THEATRE

Frederick Lonsdale, the celebrated English author and playwright who wrote the original screen story and dialogue for Ronald Colman's latest talking picture, "The Devil To Pay," which shows all this week at the Capitol Theatre, is English, born in 1881, is married and has two daughters. He is listed as a dramatic author, and is credited with nearly a score of "publications." For the works of dramatic authors, the successful ones at least, are nowadays published as well as played.

Frederick Lonsdale's devotion to his profession and to the stage is evidenced by his London club, the Garrick, the Beefsteak, and the Green Room. That he is not a recluse is shown by his recreations which are given as golf, tennis and motoring, in the order named.

Among his outstanding stage successes in this country are "The Last of Mrs. Cheney," "Spring Cleaning," and "Aren't We All?"

An old and intimate friend of Ronald Colman's since the latter was a popular leading man in London, Fredrick Lonsdale has supplied a vehicle for the "best loved lover" on the screen which, though it differs greatly from his past successes, yet provides the star with a role that fits him like a glove, and reveals further evidence of his amazing versatility.

SEPARATE RECORDING SYSTEM USED TO MAKE FILM AT PLAYHOUSE

Recording radio broadcasting for dramatic scenes in William Haines' new talkie, "Remote Control," now playing at the Playhouse, required the operation of two separate recording systems on the same set.

As to the difference in electrical impulses making up the sound frequencies, the voices on the set could not be "mixed" with the voices coming in through a radio as demanded by the plot.

Edward Sedgwick directed the picture, and the New York stage success with Mary Doran playing opposite Haines. The cast also includes Charles King, John Miljan, Polly Moran, J. C.
Nugent, Edward Nugent, Wilbur Mack and James Miljan.

SENSATIONAL DRAMA OF THE SEA PLAYING ON COLUMBIA SCREEN

Romance can flourish at sea without luxurious background of a modern floating palace favored by most novelists. The "Little Captain" is an old schooner, battered by many a storm, but it provides an interesting setting for a lively story of love, hate, intrigue and vengeance. Undoubtedly the boat has had other adventures, but the crisis as pictured in "Sea Devils," now at the Columbia Theatre, reaches the heights of melodramatic action.

FRANCES DEE HAS LEADING ROLE IN COLUMBIA FEATURE

Frances Dee, who was an unknown to picture-goers a year ago as rain is to the Sahara desert, is currently making the acquaintance of millions of people in the United States through her work in "June Moon," the Jack Oakie picture which is now running at the Columbia Theatre.

About a year ago Miss Dee was a Hollywood extra. Her unusual ability as an actress was brought to the attention of a discriminating director who gave her a series of scenes in which she played the part of a principal role in the talkies.

BRILLIANT CAST IN "THE CRIMINAL CODE" HERE AT DOMINION

If cast has anything to do with the success of a picture, Columbia's all-talking version of "The Criminal Code," one of Broadway's smash stage hits, is going to repeat its popularity on the screen. This romantic drama is now playing at the Dominion Theatre, and its players represent the finest acting talent available.

Walter Huston, in the leading role of the prison warden, heads the list.
Though Huston has long been one of the highlights of the New York stage, he made his debut in pictures only a short time ago. Yet in this time he has established himself as a screen personality second to none.

Phillips Holmes, the Princeton student who has made a meteoric rise in pictures, has the leading juvenile role in "The Criminal Code," as the youthful convict.

"THE BLUE ANGEL" STARRING JANNINGS, COMING SATURDAY

Ernst Lubitsch has nothing on his old friend Emil Jannings.
In an earlier day—about six years ago, Lubitsch and Jannings were one of the most impressive teams, as actor and director, in all of Germany.
Among the pictures Jannings made under Lubitsch's direction were the now-famous "Passion" and "Deception."

Jannings has matched his old teammate for prowess and success in the new medium of English-speaking audible films. For he has made his first talkie, in English, "The Blue Angel," which comes to the Coliseum Theatre on Saturday for a week's run.

NEWS IN BRIEF

William Hook was fined $10 in City Police Court this morning for operating an automobile without proper license plates.

Routine business is on the agenda for the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the police court room.

Charged with undertaking to tell fortunes, Madame Sammi was arraigned in City Police Court this morning and remanded to next Thursday on request of counsel, G. H. Sedgwick.

Kenneth Ormrod, charged with possession of stolen goods, was again remanded in City Police Court this morning. The case will be heard next Tuesday. Bail has been set at $500.

Support of the Fairfield United Church choir concert, to be held in the Fairfield United Church on April 29, was promoted by the Rotary Club at its luncheon to-day.

The annual banquet and Vimy commemoration of the Victoria branch of the Amputation Association of Canada will be held at 7:45 o'clock Saturday evening at the New Thought Temple Hall. Fred Wells, the president, will occupy the chair.

Rev. Bruce G. Gray has declined a call to the pastorate of St. John's Church, Vancouver, and will remain at First United Church for a third year as assistant minister. Rev. Mr. Gray was yesterday extended a unanimous call which had been sustained by the Vancouver Presbytery of the United Church.

Vancouver Island obtains valuable publicity in the "Auto Court Guide" just issued by the Automobile Club of British Columbia. Three of the island's auto camps are listed—the Pigou-Bungalow Auto Camp and the MacMillan Auto Camp, of the city, and the Tye Auto Camp, Campbell River. Listing in such an authoritative and widely circulated publication will bring many tourists to the island during the summer months and shows the standard of these camps.

An illustrated lecture on insects was given yesterday evening by W. E. Downes, Dominion Entomologist, before the Victoria Horticultural Society at the council chamber of the City Hall. A large attendance was presided over by Dr. A. G. Price. The speaker dealt with insect pests and methods of control and also showed greatly magnified views of many insects of value because they destroy pests. Mr. Downes also showed moving pictures of insects.

FORMER PRAIRIE
MAN DIES HERE

Late Chas. D. Powell Active Church Worker Here and in Lethbridge

Helped Spurgeon Found His London Mission; Honored For War Services

Charles Dormer Powell, former well-known business man, passed away this morning at the family residence, 824 Craigflower Road, aged sixty-nine years. Before coming to Victoria a year ago, Mr. Powell resided in Lethbridge about seven years and prior to that was for many years manager of R. Smith & Company of Winnipeg, boarding car contractors of the C.P.R.

Mr. Powell was born in London, England, and came to Canada in 1902. During the war he returned to England with the intention of assisting the Canadian Red Cross, and became head of the accounting branch of the Central Prisoners of War Fund. In recognition of his long, voluntary services in this connection, Mr. Powell was presented by the joint committee of the British Red Cross Society and Order of St. John of Jerusalem of England in recognition of valuable services rendered during the war. Mr. Powell's certificate was the only one of its kind in Canada.

As a young man he was much interested in social welfare work and helped the late Mrs. Chas. E. Spurgeon found his famous mission in London. Prior to leaving Lethbridge he was created "deacon emeritus" of Wesley United Church in recognition of his services to the church, and since coming to Victoria had been an active member of Victoria West United Church.

He is survived by his widow, at the family residence, and three sons, Edgar E. C. Powell, Victoria; Edwin A. Powell, Winnipeg; and Howard A. Powell, Lethbridge; and two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Penny, Vancouver, and Mrs. Irene Maud Powell of this city. The remains are being cared for by McCall Bros. Funeral Chapel, pending funeral arrangements which will be announced later.

The funeral of Alice Maud Howell, who passed away in this city on Tuesday, will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the S. J. Curry and Son Funeral Home, Canon F. A. P. Chadwick will officiate, and interment will be in the family plot at Royal Oak Burial Park.

Funeral services for Henry Bonson will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the S. J. Curry and Son Funeral Home. Interment will be in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Need $190 More For Aged Men's Pocket Money

Donations received so far by James H. Beatty, M.P., and Fred Landis towards the fund to supply $2 a month pocket money to the non-pensioners of the Aged Men's Home have made it possible to continue the distribution without interruption, but $190 more is necessary to assure continuance for the rest of the year. Mr. Beatty and Mr. Landis are hoping an appeal for more donations will be successful, so that it will not be necessary to shut off the monthly pocket money, which means so much to the aged men. Recent new subscribers are: Anonymous $50, Edgar Breen $5, Renee Archibald $5, Crystal Finch $12, Miss Mabel P. Galt, $25, and G. A. Merrick $50. J. J. Kenny Tells Life Underwriters Too Much Psychology in Salesmanship Courses

Protest Fails to Stop Added Levy on Life Insurance Premiums

Over thirty members of the Victoria and Island Life Underwriters' Association this afternoon were addressed on "Salesmanship" by J. J. Kenny, vice-president of the Vancouver Life Underwriters' Association at the monthly luncheon held at Spencer's restaurant.

Mr. Kenny protested attempts to standardize salesmanship, remarking that courses of study available were based on mass statistics and theories of psychology, and all ignored an unknown quantity analogous with the third dimension.

"In our sales effort we practice theory when we should be practicing common sense," he remarked.

Pointing out that world exchange of goods depended on production, transportation and development of a desire to acquire, Mr. Kenny said the first two elements in trade depended on the third factor, which in turn involved necessity that the salesman be himself sold on his line of goods.

Mr. Kenny stressed the importance of mental importance of habits in formation of desires, and the necessity of knowledge as a basis for belief, which was a great factor in sales. "You never made a sale unless, at some time, you and your prospect got into a close association of ideas," he stated, citing an instance where knowledge of a prospect's lumber business had been a factor in selling life insurance.

COURAGE OF IDEAS
Mr. Kenny drew a sharp distinction between information and knowledge, viewing the latter as interlocked with wisdom, while information of itself was of little worth.

"What we want to do is have courage to use our own ideas. I have seen sales made theoretically in the office, only to have men come back unsuccessful because they lacked the courage to put their ideas into effect," Mr. Kenny said, urging the basic worth of common sense when seeking sales.

"I would like to see more common sense and less sales psychology in the text books on salesmanship," Mr. Kenny said, "they will all be seen to have been attained by your having fallen back on common sense," he said in conclusion.

P. Lewin and Kenneth Ferguson, moved the vote of thanks to Mr. Kenny. President W. E. McIntyre reported that no success had been attained by a committee of Vancouver and Victoria life underwriters who recently protested against an increase in taxation of insurance premiums from two per cent to two and one-quarter per cent.

Mr. Powell was born in London, England, and came to Canada in 1902. During the war he returned to England with the intention of assisting the Canadian Red Cross, and became head of the accounting branch of the Central Prisoners of War Fund. In recognition of his long, voluntary services in this connection, Mr. Powell was presented by the joint committee of the British Red Cross Society and Order of St. John of Jerusalem of England in recognition of valuable services rendered during the war. director of sales and advertising, J. S. Fry & Sons and Cadbury Limited of Montreal, accompanied by George S. Payne, British Columbia manager, paid a short visit to the city yesterday. REGULATION OF
TOURIST CAMPS IS ADVOCATED

Legislation which will make it necessary for all automobile camps and other accommodation provided for tourists to be licensed and provided with official signs indicating they are up to the standard demanded, is suggested by the Canadian Association of Tourist and Publicity Bureaus, with which the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau is affiliated.

A communication on the subject from Montreal, received by George J. Power, general vice-president of the organization, urges that provincial governments be asked to pass legislation to restrict the issuing of signs to only such official or authorized organizations as may be designated by the governments.

It points out that it has been brought to the attention of the association that certain parties, under the guise of service organizations, are in some parts of Canada, soliciting owners of homes providing tourist accommodation, and inducing them to give a sign to place on or near the highway which they are to be used to attract business and which signs may deceive many people who regard them as official insignia. Persons who legitimately offer tourist accommodation, as well as the traveling public, are being victimized in this regard, the letter says.

A copy of the legislation sought in Ontario, with a suggestion that similar legislation be sought in British Columbia, is forwarded. It calls for licenses to be secured by owners of homes providing tourist accommodation, for notices to be displayed that it is a properly registered camp, for the camp to be subject to inspection by a health officer, for guests to be registered and provided for penalties when the law is broken.

IS KILLED BY ROLLING LOGS

Duncan, April 9.—Caught between two rolling logs, Louis Miller, aged twenty-one, whose parents reside at 220 Sims Avenue, Victoria, was killed in a logging accident at Kistinger, Lake Cowichan, Tuesday afternoon.

The accident occurred at 3 p.m., and Miller died four hours later on his way to hospital.

It was the deceased's first day's work in the woods.

An inquest is being held to-day at the Whidden Funeral Parlors.

The party has been at the Oak Bay Hotel during the last few days. He has been playing golf.

CHINESE FOUND DEAD

Yet Ah Yick, Chinese baker at the Hongkong Restaurant, Piggard Street, was found dead this morning in the Victoria Cafe, 561 Piggard Street. After the coroner was notified the body was removed to the Victoria Hospital. It is presumed death was from natural causes. Born in China, he had been resident of this province for twenty years. The last accident occurred when he was in the kitchen, being present in the S. J. Curry and Son Funeral Home and announcement of funeral will be made later.

MEETING OF WARD

THIS EVENING

Ward Three, Victoria Liberal Association, will meet to-night at the Liberal rooms, Government Street. Important business is on the agenda and a number of good addresses are scheduled.

SPLENDOR OF LARDEAU IS SHOWN CLUB

Beauties of Columbia River District Displayed in Slides to Rotarians

The splendor of mountain scenery, delicate tints of apple orchards in blossom, fiery hues of sunrises and beauty of water ways and lakes of the Lardeau were reproduced in all their color before the Rotary Club at its luncheon in the Empress Hotel to-day, when J. Humphrey, of the New Westminster club, delivered an illustrated address on that country.

Before showing his outstanding slides, the speaker urged Rotarians to boost the tourist attractions of the hinterland of southern British Columbia, since he felt any tourists coming to Victoria, would be induced to return to the city after they had enjoyed the spectacular scenery of the interior.

With such a tremendous tract of land as that between the Capital City and Golden, with abundant possibilities for development in the province's major industries, he queried the advantages of seeking to open up lands far afield.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURES
Pictures of snow-capped mountains, gleaming in the morning sunrise and of Paradise Mine, where Lieutenant-Governor R. Randolph Bruce made his first "stake," were projected on the screen.

Glacier Park and other districts of the so-called "Switzerland of America," were depicted in color along with views around Revelstoke. Fields of wild flowers, valleys of silver water falls and wild life were also shown. Fishing scenes at Trout Lake, near Nelson, and the picturesque Kaslo and Slokan roads were also thrown on to the screen.

SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE
Some of the "bags" of hunters and catches of fishermen, all proving the country to be one of excellent appeal to sportsmen, indicated the tourist possibilities of the area.

Views of Kimberly, where the products of the mines were valued at $50,000,000 in 1929, and power developments being undertaken were shown to illustrate the vast natural wealth of the land.

In a pictorial tour, the speaker conducted the clubmen through the lake district, showing orchards in bloom and bearing fruit.

In conclusion, Mr. Humphrey again sought the support of the clubmen in giving publicity to the country and emphasized the possibilities of the area he had shown.

Rev. Montague W. J. Bruce moved a vote of thanks to the speaker.

Following the luncheon, members intending to go to Fort St. James, Northwest at Conference at the end of the month, stayed to make registrations and final arrangements for the trip.

Hon. R. W. Bruhn, Minister of Public Works, was a guest at the meeting.

Quad Club Hears Of Northland In Gold Rush Days

Before a well-attended gathering of the Y.M.C.A. Quad Club, Mayor E. Telord, former officer in the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, related tales of the Yukon in the gold-rush days, at the club's dinner in the association.

Tuesday evening with scores of colorful incidents, the speaker gave his hearers a graphic impression of the northland in the early days, and told them of the natural wealth of the country.

ARGENTINA IN GRAIN EXHIBIT

The Argentina Republic will be a participant in the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference to be held at Regina in 1932. News of the acceptance of Canada's invitation to participate in this great international grain exhibition and conference was made public shortly after Sir George Perley, representative of the Canadian Government, had arrived at the British Trade Exposition at Buenos Aires with an official invitation to the Prince of Wales to officiate at the opening in 1932.

A special commission of three members of the Argentina Department of Agriculture has been appointed to take care of all details in connection with participation of the republic in the exhibition and conference. They are the director of statistics, the director of disease prevention and the director of trade and commerce.

SIXTEENTH COUNTRY
Argentina is the sixteenth country to officially accept the invitation of the Canadian Government to attend the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference at Regina in 1932. The complete list of participants at present is as follows: Italy, Peru, Yugoslavia, Guatemala, New Zealand, Czechoslovakia, The Netherlands, Belgium, Poland, Siam, India, Portugal, Switzerland, Estonia, The Philippine Islands and Argentina. There are ample assurances that the list will increase to forty or fifty before the opening takes place.

Agriculture is one of the chief industries of the Argentina Republic. Official figures recently issued for the 1928-1929 crop year showed nearly 30,000,000 acres cultivated to wheat with a production in excess of 300,000,000 bushels.

FINE DISPLAY FROM QUEBEC
One of the most attractive displays in the educational section of the exhibition will be from the province of Quebec. The government of that province has decided to take a space of 200 feet frontage in the exhibition building. The centre feature of the exhibit will be a Quebec farm complete with buildings, livestock, fields, sugar bushes, etc., flanked on either side with exhibits of natural resources of the province, including mineral, lumber, power development, handicraft and manufactured products.

CHRISTMAS TREE
MAN SUES CITY
FOR TRADE LOSS

Unemployed Vendor, Blocked By License Fee, Claims Rights as Citizen

One of the unhappy business ventures, overshadowed at the time by the rush of Christmas trade, came to light to-day when Louis E. de Macedo, describing himself as "disabled and unemployed," and now acting as his own lawyer, started action in the County Court before Judge Lampman against the city of Victoria and L. E. Gower, tax collector, for killing his Christmas tree business and thus depriving him of his Christmas profits.

"Being disabled and unemployed, I secured a supply of Christmas trees and offered them for sale on the vacant lot at 817 Port Street," Mr. de Macedo stated. "On December 22, Mr. Gower came along and demanded $10 as city license fee for selling Christmas trees."

When the plaintiff did not pay his license fee, Mr. Gower repeated his demand the next day and then had the Christmas tree business closed down, Mr. de Macedo states.

Mr. de Macedo in his present action claims compensation from the city for wrongfully and unlawfully discriminating against me and interfering with my legal rights as a citizen of Victoria.

He states his claim as follows: 130 Christmas trees at 70 cents, $91; sixty small table-size Christmas trees at 25 cents, $15; damages, $150. He is willing to allow the city $13.50 off for the trees he actually sold before Mr. Gower closed up his business. This brings the net amount of his claim to $224.50.

Defending the city and Mr. Gower, H. A. Maclean, K.C., as counsel, replied that Mr. de Macedo should have been made to pay $30 required as hawk or huckster license.

The judge put the case down for full hearing on April 17.

DESPITE LOW PRICES, WINTER WHEAT CROP GREATER THAN EVER

In spite of all protests that wheat prices are now below a money-making level, involving a loss on each bushel raised, the winter wheat farmers of United States are going to raise more wheat than ever before. The U.S. Government crop report, issued at Washington at 3 o'clock this afternoon, estimated this year's winter wheat crop at the unprecedented total of 644,000,000 bushels.

The winter wheat condition as of April 1 is given as 88.8 per cent, against 88.3 in December last and 77.4 in April, 1930; and a ten-year average condition of 79.2 per cent.

The Government report estimate of 644,000,000 bushels more than 615,000,000 average of the private reports issued on April 1, and is 40,000,000 bushels more than the total winter wheat crop harvested last year.

Rye condition is given as 81.6, against 82 in December and 81.2 a year ago. Pasture condition is given as 76.1, against 77.1 a year ago.

Winter oats condition is estimated as 83.3, against 71.1 a year ago.

To-day's estimate of a winter wheat crop of 644,000,000 bushels, compares with the crops actually harvested in the last few years as follows: 1930, 604,000,000 bushels; 1929, 576,000,000 bushels; 1928, 578,000,000 bushels; 1927, 535,000,000 bushels; 1926, 627,000,000 bushels; 1925, 401,000,000 bushels; 1924, 592,000,000 bushels.

Chicago, April 9.—"To-day's government crop report is construed by the trade as bearish," says J. J. Bailey.

Washington, April 9.—In a report on world wheat prospects the Department of Agriculture to-day estimated that the domestic surplus of wheat available for export and carryover on July 1 at 290,000,000 bushels.

WINNIPEG

(By Logan & Bryan) Winnipeg, April 9.—Wheat: Strong cables and a better export business. Sales totaling around one million bushels. The market was a better one to-day and prices during the first half of the day were 1/4 to 1/2 above the close last night. The buying by exporters and seaboard houses fell away after the first hour. The local cash wheat was decidedly active, there being a good demand from shippers and other buyers. Reported that the market had changed hands at spreads unchanged to 1/4 better. There was a splendid inquiry for durum, but rather scarce and difficult to buy.

All pool wheat held at Buffalo is reported sold. Private cables stated there was a better all round demand for wheat in Great Britain, while France and Italy were also fair buyers. Foreign importers have not been buying extensively of late and indications point to moderate shipments this week, but consumption abroad is undoubtedly on a materially reduced and are now reaching low figures.

Reports of high temperatures, lack of moisture and high winds causing dust storms are coming from western Canada. Further rains were received in parts of the winter belt but the Kootenai crop prospects for to-night. Winnipeg futures closed 1/2 to 1/4 higher.

Coarse grains: Further amounts of barley were worked for export over night. Figures being estimated at 300,000 to 500,000 bushels. There was very little done in oats and rye, with eastern Canada still taking the odd cars of oats daily.

Oats closed 1/4 higher, barley 1/4 higher and rye unchanged to 1/4 higher. Flax—This market was very dull with very little of anything going on. Closing prices 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher.

Liverpool due 1/2 to 1/4 lower, based on Winnipeg.

ABITIBI ISSUES CRASH ON FEAR OF PAPER CUT

Montreal, April 9.—There is no foundation for the statement the Dominion Steel and Coal Company is to issue bonds to the value of $10,000,000, said the company's president, C. B. McNaught, to-day. Mr. McNaught was asked to comment on the newspaper dispatch from Toronto, N.S., that his company was making a bond issue, the proceeds of which will be used in a huge reconstruction programme at its Sydney plant. This coming season.

(By Logan & Bryan) Montreal, April 9.—Probably the most outstanding feature of the day's market for Canadian securities was the break which occurred in the Abitibi issues. The 5 per cent bonds declined about 10 points, the 6 per cent stock 23 1/2 points to 33, and the common 2 points to 7. Just what was behind these actions could not be definitely learned, but undoubtedly rumors of a fresh cut in price of newspaper print were partly responsible for the heavy selling. So far, the price rumors cannot be confirmed. These levels for the Abitibi issues constitute new lows for the current year as well as for the entire downward movement. Other paper stocks were on the easy side.

On the other hand, interest revived in the distillery stocks. Distillers Corp. stock went up to 11 1/2, Hiram Walker to 7 1/4, and Industrial Alcohol to 4 1/2. The feeling that this group has become much more cheerful in the past few days because it felt that real progress is being made in the direction of formation of the new Atlantic Sales Pool. Dominion Bridge was again a notably weak feature and fell to a new low at 4 1/2. The board of directors will meet to consider the May 15 dividend around the twentieth of this month.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

Does Dorothy Dix Take Sides?—Two Without Prospects Who Have Made a Success of Marriage—Shall This Energetic Wife Take Back Her Lazy Husband?

DEAR MISS DIX—Which side of the fence are you on? One time you take sides with the man who wants a wife who would feed his soul with some intelligent conversation, even if she was a poor housekeeper. Then you take sides with the man who wants a wife who would feed his soul with some voice because his wife is not a good housekeeper. How can a woman with a family of small children be a wife, mother, maid, good housekeeper, and not neglect her duty to herself? Do we not owe our children some attention, or are we just to turn them loose and sally forth to our card parties and golf clubs?

OUR CLUB.

ANSWER:

I am not on either side of the fence. I am on top of it looking both ways and trying to see both sides of the husband-and-wife proposition.

And there are two sides, you know, though most women can only see their own, and never consider the man's side at all. They see only their own trials and tribulations and difficulties and never even cast a glance at their husbands'.

They think that marriage is hard on women, but easy on men. They think that the wife and mother has all the work to do, all the anxieties to bear, all the sacrifices to make and that the man goes scot-free.

Which, of course, isn't true. Not all wives are angels, nor are all husbands brutes. There are good wives and bad wives, and good husbands and bad husbands. There are wives who fail in their duties to their husbands, just as there are wives who work themselves to death for husbands who never even say "thank you" to them. And every man who is a poor man, and whose whole earnings go to the support of the family, makes just as much sacrifice of his own tastes and inclinations and pleasures as any wife does.

I grant you that marriage is harder on a woman than it is on a man, but so is life. There isn't anything that a woman has to do that isn't harder for her to do just from the mere fact that she is a woman. And this isn't just in the home. It is outside of it. It is everywhere, in any occupation she chooses to follow.

If she goes into business she has less strength and health to work with than a man has. It is harder for her to stand on her feet behind a counter, more of a strain on her to pound the typewriter all day than it is for a man. She is paid less for her work than a man and more is expected of her in the way of personal appearance. And her achievement in many lines of occupation is strictly barred because of her sex.

Why the Creator put so many handicaps on women we do not know. But He did, and there is no use in quarrelling about them. We just have to accept the fact that it is a man's world and that women are out of luck.

But while I sympathize with women because I am one of the poor, unfortunate creatures myself, I can see the man's point of view, too, and what I am trying to do in my feeble way is to be a liaison officer between husbands and wives, and to bring them together and make each appreciate the difficulties that the other has to face and make each see the justice of the other's grievance and so to try to get them to work together for their mutual good and happiness.

And now, dear ladies, will you try to look fairly at the two questions which I tried to answer for the dissatisfied husbands? Are not both men right in their demands upon their wives, the one that his wife should give him some mental and spiritual sustenance, and the other that his wife should provide him with decent meals? Cannot a man be spiritually hungry as well as physically so, and is it not his wife's duty to provide both needs?

Nor is there any reason why she shouldn't do so. There is nothing to prevent a woman from being both intelligent and a good cook. In fact, the more intelligent she is, the better cook she will be.

Any woman can make herself an interesting companion to her husband if she will read even so much as one daily paper through thoroughly a day and if she can't find time to do this it is because she is a poor manager and doesn't use her head in planning out her work. Or she can turn the radio on and listen to the world news while she is washing the dishes.

I have never yet seen the woman who loved to read who couldn't steal the time to do it. So lack of time is just an alibi for lack of interest in anything but neighborhood gossip and what the children are doing and the price of things in the stores. As for a woman being a poor cook, there is no excuse to offer for that, just sheer laziness.

Never once under any circumstances have I advocated mothers neglecting their children for their pleasures, but I do think that a great many women make a fatal mistake in neglecting their husbands for their children, and that not all of a woman's thought and time and interest and affection should be given to Junior. Junior's father likes to be babied, too, and chucked under the chin, and told that he is the bonniest and wonderfulest thing in the world.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—All signs fall in dry weather and matrimony, and I just simply have to write and tell you that sometimes the marriages that seem scheduled to go on the rocks sail into a haven of bliss. Consider mine. I am a normal school graduate. My husband is so uneducated that he can scarcely write a letter that is readable. We married in our teens and were both as poor as Job's turkey. Our five children were born as fast as Nature could get them here, and sickness and accident kept us just one jump behind the doctors' bills. We have been through unemployment and lack of sufficient clothing and food. To-day we own our own home and are well off and happy and we feel that we are nearer to each other than we would be if we had not married when we did. Those years of struggle have welded the links of the bond between us. So my advice to any one wishing to get married is: Do it if you care enough, but make sure that you do.

I AM HAPPY.

ANSWER:

This is a heartening letter in a time of matrimonial depression, but before any adolescent young couple take this fortunate woman's advice I hope they will not only try to find out if they love enough, but if they are made of the stuff that can stand the trials and tribulations that this man and woman have been through.

It takes grit to do that. It takes stamina to enable a boy and girl to go through struggle and hard work and poverty and shabbiness and crying babies and to do without all the comforts and luxuries and ease of life and still love on and think it all worth while just so they can be together.

Most youngsters are too soft for that, and when they find that marriage means sacrifice and hard work and being tied down with children and anxiety about bills, love flies out of the window and they turn on each other with fierce recriminations, each blaming the other for their plight.

Also it is just sheer luck when a boy and girl develop along together and one doesn't outgrow the other.

That is why I am opposed to early marriages and think that young people should wait to marry until they are grown up and able to provide for a family. Sometimes the early marriage works out all right, but generally it ends in divorce.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I married a man who wouldn't work and whom I had to support. I got tired of doing that and divorced him. Now he wants me to go back to him and says if I will he will get a job. I am sorry for him, but I don't love him. Is it my duty to go?

WORRIED.

ANSWER:

Certainly not. The chances are he just wants you for a meal ticket. Tell him that if he really wants you to come back to him to go to work and prove that he is a man and can support you. Make yourself a prize for him to work for. If he won't work to get you, he will certainly not work after he has got you.

MARCH UNEMPLOYMENT

Largely owing to seasonal curtailment in the out-door industries, there was a falling off in employment at the beginning of March, which, however, involved a smaller number of workers than that indicated on March 1, 1930. Statements were furnished to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics by 7,452 of the larger employers of labor throughout Canada, whose payrolls aggregated 901,585 persons, as compared with 906,818 in the preceding month. This decrease caused the index number (based upon the average for 1926 as 100) to decline from 100.7 on February 1, 1931, to 100.2 at the beginning of March, as compared with 110.2, 111.4, 102.6, 97.5, 92.6, 88.1, 91.8, 91.0, 82.9 and 89.1 on March 1, 1930, 1929, 1928, 1927, 1926, 1925, 1924, 1923, 1922 and 1921, respectively. Thus the index was lower than on March 1, 1930, 1929 and 1928, but with these exceptions, was higher than in any previous year of the record.
